NAZI FORTIFICATIONS STORMED BY SOVIETS IN SPITE OF BARRAGE

Russians Recapture Town to Eliminate Hazard to Rear of Their Advancing Troops—New Tanks Crash Through Forts Built of Snow Hardened With Ice

MOSCOW, March 5 (AP).—Cleaning up a stubborn pocket of German resistance 125 miles east of Smolensk, the Red Army in its west-war offensive has recaptured the town of Yukhnov, on the highway from Moscow to Warsaw, the Soviet Command announced tonight.

This town lies fifty or sixty miles behind the points of farthest Russian advance in this region, and its recapture apparently eliminates a serious hazard to the rear of the advancing Soviet troops, in view of the imminence of a German Spring offensive.

The Germans had converted Yukhnov and the surrounding area into a network of strongly fortified points and had rushed reinforcements to it by plane from Germany, France, Czecho-Slovakia and other occupied countries.

The Russians were able to storm these fortifications despite a heavy artillery barrage. The Germans suffered "very heavy losses," including more than 500 killed on a single sector of about a mile.

PRECIPITATE RETREAT

The German retreat was said to be so precipitate that they left wounded in a hospital of the village of Slobods and failed in a desperate last-minute effort to set fire to Yukhnov and destroy ammunition dumps there. As a result the Russians captured a large quantity of material.

On the same front, supplemental reports said, Russian infantry units smashed the 55th Infantry Regiment and the first battalion of the 21st Infantry Regiment.

PICTURES SHOW DAMAGE HEAVY

British Air Ministry Releases Photographs of Raid on Paris Factory

LONDON, March 6 (Friday) (CP).—The Air Ministry early today released photographs taken on a daring daylight reconnaissance flight over Occupied France yesterday, to confirm the tremendous damage inflicted upon German war industries in the suburbs of Paris Tuesday night.

The photos of the bombed Renault Motor Works area showed the power station and the Sequin tank assembly shops, "two of the most vital sections," in the words of the Air Ministry, were "very badly knocked about."

A discussion of the photographs by the Air Ministry News Service said that some damage was caused outside the Renault works, "mostly occasioned by blast," but the ministry added that "having regard to the scale of the attack, this damage is astonishingly slight . . ."

Other pictures taken during the bombing, the Air Ministry said, showed that "much of the works were obscured by the glow of fires and the confusion of smoke," while those taken by daylight showed the fires still burning "but the smoke had cleared away and a great stretch of damage is plain to the view."

This damage was said to have been "evenly distributed over the whole area of the works."

JAPANESE TALLY SINGAPORE SPOIL

TOKIO (From Japanese Broadcasts) March 5 (AP).—The Domei Agency quoted Japanese Military Headquarters tonight as saying 90,000 soldiers were captured at Singapore. It said 42,000 of these were Indians.

Domei tallied the wounded prisoners at 11,050, including 3,850 Australians, 3,500 British and 2,800 Indians.

The agency said spoils taken from the British included 300 howitzers, 98 anti-aircraft cannon and automatic guns, fifty-four fortress guns, 108 rapid-fire guns, 180 trench mortars, sixty-three anti-tank guns, 2,530 machine guns, 773 automatic rifles, 3,900 pistols, 55,500 rifles, 10,000 rounds of cartridges, 14,020 automobiles, 130,300 drums of oil, 1,027 railway cars and locomotives.

PEACE PLANS ARE DEBATED

Members Discuss Post-War Employment Problems —Bill Considered

OTTAWA, March 5 (CP).—Canada should plan for peace "with the meticulous care as to detail and with the energy and foresight with which Hitler prepared for war," Arthur Roebuck (Liberal, Toronto-Trinity) said in the House of Commons today.

"We can do it," he said, "but if we are to win the victories of peace we must not approach the problem in the lackadaisical way in which we approached the problems of war."

Mr. Roebuck was speaking on second reading of Labor Minister Mitchell's bill providing for post-war re-employment of those who enlist in the armed forces.

MERELY GESTURE

The bill was merely a "gesture," but a gesture in the right direction, Mr. Roebuck said, and he called upon the Government for a huge plan for re-establishment with removal of trade barriers, improvement in communication and transportation facilities and development of national resources for the use of the people instead of for private gain.

A planning committee of House of Commons members to prepare for post-war problems was urged by Rev. T. C. Douglas (C.C.F., Weyburn), who said the bill was full of loopholes and that the Government, so far, had done "absolutely nothing" for veterans of the present war.

HOLDING STOCKS OF TYPEWRITERS

U.S. War Production Board Freezing Sales and Deliveries of New And Used Machines

WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP). — The United States War Production Board tonight froze all sales and deliveries of new and used typewriters, effective at midnight.

The order, expected to be followed shortly by a rationing programme, was intended to conserve the supply of typewriters for essential use. The industry is undergoing conversion to war production.

The sweeping order overrides any outstanding sales contracts for typewriters or any priority claims on typewriter deliveries.

WPB officials said the order was issued chiefly to prevent a probable run on typewriter stocks resulting from the conversion programme.

Headed for Emerald Isle

Wearing new-type lifebelts, less cumbersome and more efficient than the old, members of the American Expeditionary Force, soldiers and nurses, are shown at the rail of one of the transports that ferried the force across the Atlantic to Northern Ireland. The crossing was made safely under the protection of the United States Navy.

Engineers Start Surveying Route Of Alaska Road

United States War Secretary Stimson Reports Joint Defence Board Has Given Approval to Project —Premier King Says No Agreement Has Been Made Yet to His Knowledge

WASHINGTON, March 5 (CP).—Two United States Cabinet ministers reported progress today on plans to construct the Alaska Highway, and War Secretary Henry Stimson went so far as to announce the Canadian-American Joint Defence Board had approved the project.

Without specifying the route, Stimson said "the engineers who have been assigned to make the surveys and lay out the pioneer road are on their way."

Meanwhile, Interior Secretary Harlod Ickes, also at a press conference, said American army engineers have been instructed to survey the route as quickly as possible and this work already has started with equipment being moved in ahead of the Spring break-up.

SAYS NO AGREEMENT

However, in Ottawa, Prime Minister Mackenzie King told the House of Commons no agreement had been reached as far as he was aware, and said he had nothing to add to his previous statement that the highway project is under consideration by the appropriate defence authorities of Canada and the United States.

Although neither Stimson nor Ickes specified the route, it was taken for granted here they were referring to one paralleling or following the string of air fields built by the Canadian Government last year north from Edmonton, through the British Columbia Peace River Block to White Horse in the Yukon. The United States War Department is believed to favor this route over two others leading north from Prince George, B.C., and each considerably closer to the Pacific coastline.

WORK PROCEEDING

At his press conference, Ickes said preliminary work on the highway "is going ahead as rapidly as possible," and the whole project has been approved tentatively by a sub-

B.C. NOT ON ALASKA ROAD

Surveys and Data on Coast Routes Are Now Useless—Peace River Link Pledged

British Columbia surveys for alternative Coast routes for the projected Alaska highway, involving three years' intensive field study and other work, went virtually into the discard yesterday, as advices from Washington and Ottawa suggested the Alberta route will be recommended by the joint Canadian-United States Highway Board.

Hon. R. W. Bruhn announced that British Columbia had undertaken to build a short road link from the Alberta border north of the Peace River to connect with the road leading to Fort St. John, so that United States Army engineers can get supplies into the region this Winter before the thaw comes. The link will cost $1,200.

Other than that, it appeared neither what is known as the Coast route, nor the British Columbia alternative via Interior valleys, would now become part of the proposed new road to Alaska, considered as a defence measure; though the new route will cross the northeastern extremity of the Province.

WILL CO-OPERATE

The Alberta Government, Mr. Bruhn said, is building a road from Hines Creek to the British Columbia border to link with the short strip

River Overflows; Flooding Serious

LONDON, March 6 (Friday) (AP).—The Danube has burst its banks in serious floods at various points of Hungary and Bulgaria as a result of recent thaws, and is still rising, dispatches from the continent related today.

Most of the port of Vidin, Bulgaria, was flooded, and 10,000 inhabitants were marooned there. Casualties were expected to run high. Pilots flying over the flooded area reported seeing large numbers taking refuge on housetops.

ASKS HUGE SUM

WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP).—President Roosevelt asked Congress today for a $100,000,000 supplementary Works Progress Administration appropriation to provide work and training for persons displaced from private employment as the result of the United States war programme.

B.C. Airmen Describe Their Part in Raids On Paris Arms Plant

Say Exploit a Real "Showpiece"—Bombs Were Dropped on Factory From Low Level—Salt Spring Man Among Squadron Leaders

WITH THE ROYAL AIR FORCE, SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND, March 5 (CP).—Canadian airmen unfolded today a vivid picture of the Royal Air Force's big raid on the Renault plant at Paris, telling in their own words of a trip they called a real "showpiece."

The Canadian bomber crews disclosed they dropped their load from as low as 2,000 feet, then reached over the burning factory at 1,000 feet.

Everything went like clock-work, with favorable weather making it almost an easy job to drop the hundreds of tons of high explosives which left the vast plant a huge pile of burning debris.

"It was a fine trip and left us really pepped up," said Sqdn. Ldr. F. W. A. Turner, Salt Spring Island, B.C.

A flight commander in a Wellington squadron under Wing Cmdr. John Fulton, D.F.C., A.F.C., of Kamloops, Turner described the raid as one of those trips "you'd hate to miss," as he stood at a table in the hangar crew-room thumbing his log book.

THE TIMES, London

News and Comment on International Events selected from The Times daily and published in The Daily Colonist by special arrangement with The Vancouver Daily Province.

(Copyright, 1942, by Southam Co.)

LONDON, March 5 (By Cable).—Japanese gains in Java are fiercely contested by Dutch troops, who are fighting splendidly. General Ter Poorten has taken over command of Allied land forces, including British units; and Admiral Van Stavaren Allied naval forces.

Unhappily, Allied fighter opposition to enemy bombing has weakened, and loss by torpedoes of two Dutch cruisers has still more reduced the defenders' naval strength.

Java's capacity to hold out has, accordingly, been lessened. The Japanese are doing their utmost to cripple the Allies' air forces and to raid air fields on a heavy scale. Use of ten-ton tanks is met by the Allies' eight-tonners, with some local success. One Dutch tank driver drove right into Japanese tanks and sacrificed his life doing so. Other Dutch soldiers blew up bridges as the Japanese were crossing.

The native population is calm and loyal.

All Allied forces now know they have got to fight to a finish. British air force personnel, including some Canadians who have no longer any airplanes to fly or recondition, have been organized into ground units to swell the little British army under General Sitwell.

The Japanese are using fighter aircraft supplied with extra petrol tanks to give them greater range to raid Darwin. The Australian Air Force, on the other hand, has been bombing New Britain, which the invaders have captured. Purpose of these raids is to prevent the enemy resuming the bombing of Port Moresby, New Guinea.

The battle around Staraya Russa grows in intensity as each side brings up reinforcements. The Nazis have speeded up air fighting only to lose as heavily as ever to Soviet air men. The 16th German army is still fighting for life against ever-increasing Russian pressure.

MAY ATTEMPT EARLY INVASION

Australians Told Japanese Feeling Out Their Coast For Invasion

MELBOURNE, March 5 (CP).—The Japanese already are feeling out the Australian coast for invasion and may attempt early landings in the North, Northwest and East, Australians were told today.

The Melbourne Herald said the Government is studying the possibility that yesterday's raid on the northern port of Darwin by Japanese fighter planes was intended to test ground defences preliminary to invasion.

Air attacks this week on the northwestern ports of Wyndham and Broome are likely indications the Japanese may also attempt to land along the thinly-populated shores in these areas, the paper's Canberra correspondent added.

IMPORTANT BASE

Darwin is potentially an important base for the United Nations in the Southwest Pacific fighting.

Wyndham, although a small city, has a particularly [illegible] natural harbor and could be [illegible] easily by air from the Japanese-occupied island of Timor, 500 miles to the north.

Army Minister Francis Forde told the House of Representatives today that following a brief res[illegible] Maj.-Gen. Gordon Bennett, commander of Australian forces in Malaya, will be appointed to a responsible position. Gen. Bennett escaped from Singapore after the bastion fell and reached Australia last week.

SAFEGUARDS FOR MINE OPERATORS

New Protected Area in West Kootenay Being Established Under Defence Regulations

OTTAWA, March 5 (CP).—The new protected area being established under Defence of Canada Regulations in the West Kootenay area of British Columbia takes in approximately 7,000 square miles on the United States boundary including the large centres of Trail, Kimberley and Nelson, it was learned tonight.

Primarily the establishment of this area as a "protected area" is designed to safeguard the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company, Ltd., property at Trail and other big power and mining developments in the general area.

The new protected area is similar, but on a smaller scale, to the one recently established in the coast district of British Columbia, comprising all land west of the Cascade Mountains and including all coastal islands.

NETHERLANDS HINTS AT ASSAULT AGAINST ENEMY AT ANY MOMENT

Nazis Stage Night Raid On Moscow

LONDON, March 6 (Friday) (AP).—German planes raided Moscow Thursday night, dropping bombs "at random and inflicting insignificant damage," although there were "some casualties," the Russian radio announced early today.

Only two or three raiders managed to reach the Soviet capital itself to drop their bombs.

Others in the group flying on Moscow were dispersed by anti-aircraft fire and night fighter planes, the announcement said.

GENERALS IN CONFERENCE

Chiang Kai-Shek and Sir Archibald Wavell Meet In China

LONDON, March 5 (CP).—A secret conference between Gen. Chiang Kai-Shek and Gen. Sir Archibald Wavell, presumably over the defence of Burma, was disclosed tonight as the Japanese invaders pointed their next blow down the west shore of the Gulf of Martaban toward the deserted capital city of Rangoon.

The Rome radio was heard claiming the Japanese had captured Rangoon, but the Japanese themselves had made no such claim and it was noted the Italian radio in the past has circulated false reports of such successes.

The Berlin radio claimed only that the Rangoon-Mandalay-Lashio railway had been cut, but did not echo the Rome claim.

Gen. Chiang and Gen. Wavell met at Kunming, capital of Yunnan Province in South China and an important supply route junction.

U.S. GENERAL ALSO

It appeared likely the United States also figured directly in the Kunming parleys. About the time the Chiang-Wavell meeting was disclosed in a dispatch from New Delhi, India, there came from Chungking a message disclosing Chiang also had conferred in Kunming with Lieut.-Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell, of the United States army, now in China on a mission to co-ordinate American and Chinese war efforts.

Chiang now has returned to Chungking, and Gen. Stilwell likewise has arrived there, and the two are presumed to be continuing their talks.

The Chinese leader paused in Kunming on his way back to Chungking from India and Upper Burma.

Loan Sales For Island $8,957,250

Third of the eight units in the division to surpass its objective, Cowichan soared over the top yesterday as total subscriptions to the Second Victory Loan mounted to $8,957,250 in the Vancouver Island division.

Yesterday's bond purchases totaled $409,200 and carried the campaign to within $892,750 of the quota of $9,850,000.

In going over the top Cowichan unit exceeded its quota of $700,000 by $19,900. Other units which smashed past their objectives earlier in the week were Alberni and West Coast unit and Courtenay unit.

Totals for the Vancouver Island units up to last night were: Victoria City, $4,445,100; Oak Bay, $1,010,450; Esquimalt, $571,500; Saanich, $760,000; Nanaimo, $512,200; Courtenay, $398,200; Alberni and West Coast, $539,900.

Government Holds Out Chance for Counter-Stroke "From Another Side"—Denies Allies Not Giving Support—Foe Within Ten Miles of Batavia —Governor Calls for Courage

Definite Air Superiority Helps Japanese to Success

TOKIO (From Japanese Broadcasts) (Friday) March 6 (AP).—Imperial headquarters announced today that Japanese forces on the Island of Java had occupied Batavia, capital of the Netherlands East Indies.

The occupation was completed at 9:30 p.m. last night, the announcement said, at the end of the fifth day of the Japanese campaign to conquer Java.

BANDUNG, Java, March 6 (Friday) (AP).—With Java being torn apart by the invader, the Netherlands East Indies Government held out today the chance of a counter-stroke against Japan "at any moment . . . from another side."

Addressing the People's Council, Javanese legislative body, in a session which lasted almost to midnight, Lieutenant-Governor-General Dr. Hubertus J. Van Mook called for continuation of "the courageous and tenacious resistance."

ARE GETTING SUPPORT

The fall of Singapore, he said, left The Netherlands Indies to face a numerically superior enemy practically alone—"I say practically alone, for it is not true that our Allies have left us altogether."

"This is not true, and it may be expected that at any moment the attack on the enemy will be launched from another side.

"There are American, Australian and British forces in this country which are fighting just as bravely as our own men."

Enemy troops have cut the last rail connection from the west with the great Surabaya naval base, the last South Pacific base, for the

SURPRISE RAID PROVED DEADLY

Thousands of Japanese Soldiers Killed or Drowned In Subic Bay

WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP).—Add to the score of General Douglas MacArthur's forces on Bataan Peninsula: "Thousands" of Japanese soldiers believed killed in the recent surprise air raid on enemy ships in Subic Bay.

The three large vessels sunk were transports, a War Department communique announced. These were loaded with enemy soldiers, many of whom were killed in the explosion of ammunition on board the ships or were drowned as their craft settled to the bottom.

Meanwhile, Secretary Stimson announced at a press conference that "material" airplane reinforcements had been sent to Java in the last week. He declined to go into details, but did say that the withdrawal of General Sir Archibald Wavell as Allied commander-in-chief in the Southwest Pacific meant no slackening of American and British support for the Dutch.

"Not only has that support not been diminished by withdrawals," he said, "but in the past week we have increased our air support materially."

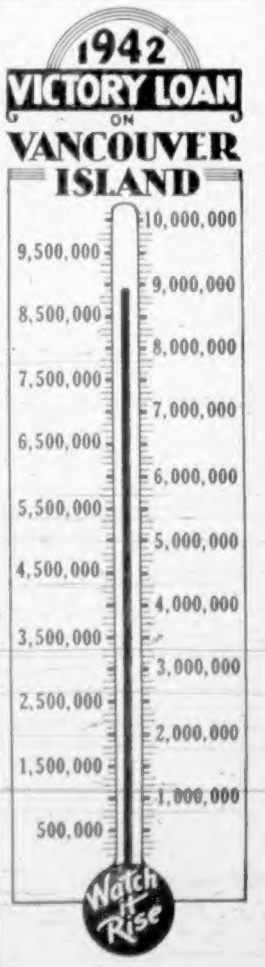
PLANS FOR INDIA NOT YET KNOWN

Government's Announcement Postponed—Conservatives Consider First Draft Too Advanced

LONDON, March 5 (AP).—The Government's announcement of a plan to grant more independence to India—and thereby to get fuller co-operation from India in the war effort—has been postponed because Conservatives in London and New Delhi consider the first draft too advanced, it was stated in informed quarters tonight.

A majority in the House of Commons clearly had expected the plan to be announced today. Sir Stafford Cripps, Government spokesman, promised a full debate shortly.

These deferred proposals, it was said, curtailed the present powers of Viceroy Lord Linlithgow, who served in the Indian Government as both Minister of Defence and Minister of Foreign Affairs. Conservative opinion both at home and in New Delhi quickly objected to this.



Air Ministry Gives Report on Activity Of Force in Month

British Losses Total 160 Planes—Germany Loses 102 During February—Many Enemy Ships Are Destroyed or Damaged

LONDON, March 5 (CP).—The Royal Air Force destroyed 102 enemy aircraft for a loss of 160 in operations from Britain and the Middle East during February, the Air Ministry announced tonight.

The ministry's statistical review of the February offensive, in which Canadians played an important part, said activity was restricted on both fronts, but home-based planes carried out operations during seventeen days and sixteen nights, while forty-nine attacks on nineteen targets were made in the Middle East.

Seventeen Axis naval, merchant and supply ships were known to have been sunk or damaged in home waters and the Mediterranean, and another three vessels were hit by Allied aircraft in the Far East.

It was indicated the Royal Air Force carried out fourteen attacks

Expect Victory Loan To Exceed Total of Last Year's Effort

Reports From Dominion Headquarters Indicate Current Campaign May Go Beyond Figure Of Canvass in June of 1941

OTTAWA, March 5 (CP).—National headquarters for Canada's second Victory Loan campaign reported tonight that reports from all parts of the Dominion reflect an intensive nation-wide effort to swing past the grand total of $837,000,000 subscribed in the first loan last June.

The current campaign ends next Saturday night. Up to Wednesday night—the latest figures available—total bond sales amounted to $656,641,950, including Wednesday subscriptions of $41,345,200.

Original objective of the present three-week drive was $600,000,000, but that figure was topped early this week and national loan officials said then they would not be satisfied unless total subscriptions reached $900,000,000.

SMALL INVESTMENTS

Included in the $656,641,950 total up to Wednesday night are 865,497 individual subscriptions, compared with 646,580 on the same day of last year's loan. Included in the current loan are 588,000 small subscriptions averaging $314 each, and loan officials said tonight this is "evidence of widespread popular interest" in the Victory Loan bonds.

One major subscription announced during the day was that of Aetna Life Insurance Co., of Hartford, Conn., $750,000.

Announced earlier were those of Mutual Life Insurance Co., of New York, $2,540,000; Crown Life Insurance Co., $2,000,000; North American Cyanamid, Ltd., Niagara Falls, $1,500,000; Toronto General Trust Corporation, $1,250,000; Saskatchewan Municipal Hail Insurance Association, $252,000.

In Regina, city treasury officials invested in Victory bonds a total of $122,000 mobilized from deposits paid on water and electric light services and for perpetual care of cemetery plots.

"The East End sub-unit in the Shaunavon district is one of the hard hit areas in Southwestern Saskatchewan," tonight's national statement said. "It has experienced one crop failure after another.

RODE ON HORSEBACK

"But it has subscribed 150 per cent of its loan quota. One salesman in this district rode horseback for five days when he couldn't get through the snow in his car, obtaining applications for $10,000."

Drumheller went over the top, making the fifth large centre in Alberta to exceed its quota. Late reports subject to confirmation indicated that Red Deer also had reached its quota. If so, all six Alberta cities have passed their early marks.

Dawson City, Y.T., was lagging with only 92 per cent of quota, while her sister units were up to 200 per cent. Mail from outlying communities comes to Dawson only twice monthly, however, and Dawson was confident the mailman's arrival would shoot up its total.

A salesman calling on a Winnipeg woman of eighty years told his story with difficulty because she was hard of hearing. He bellowed:

"We need money to beat Hitler."

"Never heard of him," she snapped—buying a $200 bond.

Henry Leblanc, French-Canadian trapper, who served overseas in the Great War, tramped fifty miles on snowshoes to sell lynx skins in order to buy Victory bonds at Mayo, Y.T.

The skipper and seven-man crew of a British Columbia Coast herring boat bought $5,000 worth of bonds among them. At Vancouver Robin Lamb, salesman, protested when offered a $100 bond. The prospect boosted his application to $15,000.

tive, Hastings-Peterborough), like Mr. Douglas and Mr. Roebuck, said the bill was commendable so far as it went, but was little more than a start on the tremendous task that post-war days would present.

PLEBISCITE BILL

Proceedings were interrupted late this afternoon, as F. D. Shaw (New Democracy, Red Deer) was beginning his speech on the Re-employment Bill, so the House could pass Senate amendments to the Plebiscite Bill.

They were accepted with little discussion and the way cleared for Royal assent, which was given in the Senate by Chief Justice Sir Lyman Duff, deputy of the Governor-General, at 6 o'clock.

Earlier in the afternoon, after some discussion over procedure, the way was cleared for early consideration of the Government's wheat marketing and acreage reduction programme.

Dr. Douglas complained of men discharged from the services being refused their old jobs and having no recourse.

Pensions Minister Mackenzie interrupted to say that every case of that kind called to his attention had brought reinstatement of the man concerned.

Capt. White urged that provision be made to give every man who is discharged at least six months' pay.

TO PROVIDE JOBS

Mr. Shaw said that lack of money cannot be advanced as an argument to justify failure of the Government to provide work after the war.

Mr. Shaw, speaking on the bill to compel employers to reinstate soldiers, sailors and airmen in their civilian jobs after discharge, said the men in the forces, many of whom were unemployed before enlistment, would remember that the Government was able to find money for the destruction of war.

They would not be satisfied if told there was no money for construction work in peacetime.

Conservative House Leader Hanson said the bill was in fulfillment of a promise made last Summer by the then Minister of Labor (Hon. Norman McLarty) to embody an order in council in a statute.

"I don't think it is worthy of great praise or great blame," he said, "but it is an instalment."

MEN IN THE FORCES

Angus MacInnis (CCF, Vancouver East) said men in the forces are now well fed, well clothed and enjoy some comforts.

"These men are not going back to the box cars after the war," he added.

Mr. Shaw said that after the war Canada would have an expanded production capacity but a great financial debt. It would be a tragedy if the Government permitted the debt to prevent it from discharging its responsibility to the people generally and to the ex-servicemen, Mr. Shaw said.

"The only solution to the post-war problem lies in our determination to give this country economic democracy. It will be quite an experience for the peole, for while we have had our political democracy, economic democracy has yet to be tasted."

Governments could not permit themselves to be ruled by a financial system which was neither "democratic, Christian nor humane," he said.

United Nations short of Australia and the Indian Ocean.

The foe stood within ten miles of the capital city of Batavia. He was beating forward upon this Indies military headquarters of Bandung.

GIVES UP PROVINCES

Van Mook gave up for lost, by the very inequality of power between the defenders and the attackers, the "little-defended outer provinces" along Java's northern shore.

"We must find our strength, as MacArthur did, in concentrating and defending certain areas where nature gives us an opportunity to resist the superior forces.

"Whatever happens we may be sure that the final victory will be on our side. . . . This war is one big fight, and our victory can just as well be won in the waters of the Pacific as on the wide plains of Russia," he said.

Meanwhile, the enemy, casting his arm out over the southern island, had opened aerial attacks upon Tjilatjap, the single port on that shore that could be used to disembark Allied reinforcements.

POSITION ON FRONT

This was the position on the three main fronts:

Batavia, in Northwest Java—A Japanese movement of envelopment apparently was proceeding unhalted. Krawang, thirty miles east of Batavia, had fallen while a complementary enemy thrust from the west had reached Tangerang, only ten miles short of the capital.

Bandung, inland in the western section of the island and southwest of Batavia—Purwakarta, twenty-five miles north-northwest of that city has been overrun; the airdrome at Kalidjati, twenty-five miles north of Bandung, was in enemy hands and under Allied attack; from the Subang area to the northeast a second enemy column was seeking to close the trap.

While the Indies command reported the enemy's "definite air superiority" was contributing to his unbroken successes, it was at the same time made plain that Allied planes were still in the skies.

British Hurricanes attacking the enemy-held Kalidjati airdrome shot down a Japanese naval fighter plane, damaged another and machine-gunned others aground. Two British craft were lost.

By The Canadian Press

IN FIERCE BATTLES

Fresh Japanese invasion forces were reported to have landed on the west coast of Java, and Netherlands headquarters acknowledged that the enemy was "advancing continually" with fierce battles raging "all over the island."

A bulletin from N.E.I. headquarters further conceded that the invaders had captured several new places in spite of "heroic and courageous resistance" by Netherlands, Indonesian, British, Australian and American troops.

Official reports placed the enemy within ten miles of Batavia, the capital, which the Government has already left, and within twenty-five miles of the new Government seat at Bandung.

The communique said the Japanese had numerical superiority both on the ground and in the air, and that a regular front no longer existed because of Japanese infiltration tactics.

While the Indies made no mention of a new landing, British military quarters said Japanese reinforcements had arrived on the west coast, presumably in a thrust toward the partially destroyed capital, Batavia, and that Allied troops immediately launched counter-attacks.

CAPTURE AIRDROME

An N.E.I. communique said the invaders had captured Kalidjati airdrome near Bandung, the inland mountain city headquarters of the Indies Command, and at least three towns in Western Java.

Another Japanese column striking southward from Rembang advanced to Bodjanegara, less than fifty miles from the Allied naval base at Surabaya, in Eastern Java.

Still another enemy force took Surakarta (Solo), in the centre of the island, seventy miles inland from the Rembang beachhead.

While the struggle for Java appeared to be reaching its tragic final stages, equally dark news came from the Burma front as Japanese assault troops stormed across the lower Sittang River and seized a key rail town sixty miles from Rangoon.

The Sittang River, stubbornly defended by British and Indian forces for the past eight days, was the last natural barrier on the road to the Burmese capital.

Australia took new alarm over the prospect of an imminent Japanese invasion of the thinly-populated northern areas of the Commonwealth.

FEELER ATTACK

The Australian Government gravely weighed the possibility that yesterday's raid on the north coast port of Darwin by Japanese fighter planes was a "feeler" attack preliminary to direct invasion.

Meanwhile an announcement by Imperial Tokio headquarters that thirty planes had attacked the Japanese Island of Minamitori Shima, 1,200 miles southeast of Tokio, stirred speculation that Allied warships and bombers may be manoeuvring to threaten Japan herself, or at least Imperial Japan's far-flung lines of communication in the Southwest Pacific.

Imperial headquarters said the raiders—unidentified but presumably American—killed eight persons and set a building afire. The Tokio radio, announcing the attack, warned people in the homeland to "take precautionary steps."

On Tuesday, an official Washington announcement said a United States naval task force, including planes, shot down sixteen Japanese planes "west of the Gilbert Islands." Minamitori Shima lies 2,000 miles northwest of the Gilbert group.

Tokio had an air raid scare when planes roared over from the Southeast Honshu coast, but they were found to be Japanese, the news agency Domei reported.

BOMBS ON HONOLULU

United States Army headquarters in Hawaii said four bombs, believed loosed by an enemy plane, had been dropped at 2:15 a.m. yesterday in a forested area two miles from the heart of Honolulu. There were no casualties in this second aerial thrust of the war against Oahu Island. The first was the mass onslaught of December 7.

From the Philippines, General Douglas MacArthur reported thousands of Japanese troops were believed drowned in the surprise raid earlier this week by his small air force on Subic Bay, north of the Bataan Peninsula front, where three troop-loaded transports were bombed and sunk. It was the first time, General MacArthur reported, that American planes had met no aerial opposition.

Japanese airmen caused some fresh damage in Port Moresby, New Guinea, in two small raids, an Australian communique said.

The Netherlands Government in London approved a mass transfer of commercial offices and assets from Java to Caribbean possessions under the wing of the United States.

LONDON (CP).—Parcels mailed in Britain between September 11 and 17 for Barbados districts have been lost by enemy action at sea.

PIGEON SAVES AIRCRAFT CREW

Cage of Carrier Opens When Plane Goes Down—Flies Home

LONDON, March 6 (Friday), (CP).—Winkie, a tough little carrier pigeon, oil soaked and doused in the icy North Sea, flew 100 miles to her home loft and thereby saved the lives of four crew members of a Royal Air Force Beaufort bomber which crashed on the way back from an offensive patrol off Norway. The Air Ministry told her story tonight.

Winkie's cage broke open when the bomber was forced down at sea by engine trouble. The plane sank within a minute, but the men managed to get off in a rubber dinghy.

SEARCH REWARDED

Pigeon Fancier James Ross, of Dundee, reported to authorities that she had returned. Her code number showed what plane she had been in. A check of her known flying speed helped in computing where she had left the plane, and a reconnaissance plane which was sent out located the dinghy.

Winkie, treated to a special feed, strutted in her cage at a party in her honor while flyers made speeches and gave Ross—for Winkie—a bronze plaque with the figure of a tiny pigeon flying over the sea. Inscribed on the plaque was the squadron's thanks to a gallant bird.

Loan Concert to Mark Concluding Effort on Drive

In an endeavor to inspire and stimulate Victoria citizens in a final effort to drive the unit's Victory Loan quota far over its objective before the campaign closes tomorrow night, a concert will be held in the Chamber of Commerce Building tonight at 8 o'clock.

The concert is sponsored by the United Scottish Societies and the Victory Loan Committee, and entertainment will include pipe band selections, vocal and instrumental numbers and dancing. Duncan MacBride, chairman of the public relations committee, will speak briefly on the Victory Loan.

In a prize ticket drawing War Savings Certificates will be awarded to holders of lucky tickets. W. G. Gamble will be chairman of the concert and A. H. Cameron and Robert Balfour comprise the committee in charge.

Alpines, Savidges To Meet Tonight

SEATTLE, March 5 (AP). — Two Seattle teams tonight won their way by lop-sided scores into the championship finale of the Northwest A.A.U. basketball tournament.

The final tomorrow night will pit the S. L. Savidge quintette, seeking a third straight trip to the national tourney at Denver, against the Alpine Dairy, winner in 1939 and finalist against the Savidges in 1940.

The towering Alps rode roughshod over the army Nodaks from Fort Lewis, who were playing their ninth game in ten nights. The score was 60-30.

The Savidges romped over Renton, 49-28.

Wartime Housing Is Scored by Aldermen For Starting Homes

City Council Lands Committee Finds Preliminary Work Under Way Without Agreement Having Been Signed—May Seek Injunction

PLANS for an injunction against Wartime Housing, Ltd., and Bennett & White, contractors, were discussed by the City Council lands committee yesterday afternoon. The committee discovered in the morning that excavation work had commenced on lots in James Bay district on which the housing organization is to erect 100 dwellings, and no agreement has yet been signed by the city. Title to the lots is also still vested in the city.

"We were amazed to see clearing operations in progress and could not find out who gave the order to start work," stated Ald. T. W. Hawkins, chairman of the lands committee. "We are considering an injunction to restrain further operations until property is transferred and an agreement signed. We also heard indirectly that the contract for 100 homes was let without regular advertisements and without giving local contractors an opportunity to bid on the project," he declared.

Members of the committee noticed a sign at the clearing operations, "Bennett & White, Contractors. Labor Is Wanted."

STANDARD NOT MET

Mayor Andrew McGavin intimated Federal Government authorities would have to expropriate the property required for Victoria Machinery Depot employees' homes in James Bay unless the city's demands for definite improvements in specifications were met. "The City Council is not prepared to accept the responsibility of permitting houses below the standard they have sought," he asserted.

Mayor McGavin received the following telegram from R. W. Mayhew, M.P.: "I interviewed Joseph M. Piggott, president of Wartime Housing Limited, this morning. He refused use of stucco, lath and plaster on the grounds they would delay construction. It is not practical to use wire lath. It would conflict with the situation in other districts where buildings have been completed and are being erected. On what grounds do you say the cost would not be increased for these and other improvements? I am having a further interview with Mr. Piggott later."

EXPLAINS SITUATION

The Mayor replied: "Wood lath and plaster for both interior and exterior work are used here universally. No wire lath is required. Plastering contractors assure me there would be no delay and no increased cost. Confirmation may be had from J. Y. McCarter, Wartime Housing Limited, architect at Vancouver. Consult information supplied you regarding improvements and services to the property with a total valuation of $78,000 in comparison with other districts. Victoria is a city, not a rural district. The City Council will not approve the agreement unless all requirements are complied with."

Later, the Mayor telephoned to Mr. McCarter, who stated he was in favor of plastered interiors in the 100 houses planned in James Bay district. Mr. Mayhew was accordingly advised.

Last Monday the City Council declined to sign an agreement with Wartime Housing Limited until officials promised to include in the proposed homes plastered interior walls and stucco exterior walls on a number.

DENIES CHARGE MADE IN HOUSE

Inspector-General Defended By Ralston in Matter of Hongkong Troops

OTTAWA, March 5 (CP).—Maj.-Gen. W. A. Griesbach, Inspector General in Western Canada, had nothing to do with dispatch of Canadian troops to Hongkong, Defence Minister Ralston told the House of Commons today.

He was commenting on statements made in a speech March 2 by Jean Francois Pouliot (Liberal, Temiscouata) in which the latter gave the impression, the Minister said, that Gen. Griesbach had something to do with that troop movement.

Col. Ralston referred to another complaint in Mr. Pouliot's speech regarding a Quebec soldier at the Brantford, Ont., training camp who was alleged to have suffered because of his use of the French language, and to have been placed in the guard house.

A check of the guard reports on the days concerned revealed that the only inmates of the guard house on the dates referred to were two men in for drunkenness, and that they were not French Canadian. Further, the Minister said, there was no officer in the camp by the name used by Mr. Pouliot.

SOME DIFFERENCE

Mrs. Dumbly was waiting to be served in the book shop. Presently a girl assistant approached her.

"What size shoe do you wear, madam?" she inquired.

"Well," said Mrs. Dumbly, "I bought size four last time."

The girl looked puzzled.

"Yes, madam, I remember," she replied, "but you're buying this pair for yourself, aren't you?"

WESTERN PICTURE NOW AT DOMINION

Bruce Cabot, Warren William and Constance Bennett Star in Old-Time Drama

"Wild Bill Hickok Rides," a thundering drama of the Old West, will open today at the Dominion Theatre.

Bruce Cabot is starred in the title role of the heroic marshal who did so much to bring law and order to frontier towns. Co-starring with him is Constance Bennett, in the role of a gambling house owner, and Warren William, as the suavest crook of frontier days. Also featured are Betty Brewer, Walter Catlett and many others.

The story of "Wild Bill Hickok Rides" concerns itself with the efforts of one Farrel to get control of the cattle country around Powder River, Montana, and the finally successful attempts to prevent such a situation.

PLAZA THEATRE The Merry "Macs are starred with Jane Frazee, Leon Errol and Mischa Auer in Universal's "Moonlight in Hawaii," now showing as the second feature at the Plaza Theatre. Don Raye and Gene de Paul, the noted song team, furnish six new tunes for the musical fun film.

RIO THEATRE Supporting Laurel and Hardy in their comedy "The Flying Deuces," now showing at the Rio Theatre, Jean Parker appears to excellent advantage as an innkeeper's pert daughter and Reginald Gardiner as her jealous husband and officer of the Foreign Legion.

YORK THEATRE "This Thing Called Love," now showing at the York Theatre, is a hectic, hilarious domestic comedy in which Rosalind Russell and Melvyn Douglas are seen to their greatest advantage. Also in the cast are such experienced laugh-getters as Binnie Barnes, Allyn Joslyn, Lee J. Cobb, Gloria Holden and Gloria Dickson.

OAK BAY THEATRE Opening scenes of "Keep 'Em Flying," Universal's Abbott and Costello film now at the Oak Bay Theatre, introduce Carol Bruce, lovely Broadway star, as a night club singer, which was her real life role before she came to Hollywood. Miss Bruce shares featured billing in the comedy with Martha Raye, William Gargan and Dick Foran.

ATLAS THEATRE Seven songs from the original stage play "The Chocolate Soldier" are sung by Rise Stevens and Nelson Eddy in the screen presentation now at the Atlas Theatre. This melodic team also sings five additional songs, including "Evening Star" from Wagner's "Tannhauser."

CADET THEATRE Wallace Beery goes romancing to the accompaniment of assorted grins, giggles and guffaws in "Barnacle Bill," in which he adventures through waterfront trials and tribulations galore at the Cadet Theatre. Teamed romantically with Marjorie Main, he has quite the funniest romance of his screen career in this picture.

CAPITOL THEATRE Walter Pidgeon has his most exacting role as the village pastor in the production "How Green Was My Valley," the filmization of the Richard Llewellyn novel, now at the Capitol Theatre. Featured with Pidgeon in the film are Maureen O'Hara, Donald Crisp and Anna Lee.

Russian Girl Kills Fifteen Nazi Soldiers

MOSCOW, March 5 (AP).—Reports from the front today told new tales of the bravery of Russia's guerrilla fighters.

In the south a girl, known as Nina, killed fifteen Germans with a rifle and burned twenty occupied buildings. In the northwest, guerrilla bands united in a strong force, attacked a big German garrison, captured a village railway station, blew up a warehouse, railway bridge and thirteen fortified points, killed 852 Germans and captured forty.

SOVIETS STORM FORTIFICATIONS

Yukhnov is on the Ugra River, midway between the Moscow-Smolensk-Minsk railroad route and the road from Moscow south through Bryansk. It is about fifty miles southwest of Vyazma on the Minsk Road, and the same distance west of Kaluga on the Bryansk Road.

Attempted German counter-attacks on some sectors of the front were acknowledged by the Soviet Command in its communique tonight. The enemy "tried to stop the advance of our troops," the bulletin said, "but suffered great losses in man power and equipment and retired westward."

BATTER SNOW FORTS

New Russian tanks battered today through ice-hardened snow forts erected by the Nazis on the Staraya Russa front in an unrelenting drive which already is reported to have reduced the desperate Nazi 16th Army from 96,000 to 60,000 men.

Crunching through walls of snow which the Germans had drenched with water to freeze and harden, the Red tank units broke into a heavily fortified settlement and dealt especially heavy damage to the 502nd Regiment, front dispatches said.

Other Russian units hit hard against the German 5th Division which was trying to break through to lift the siege of the encircled 16th Army.

The 5th, intended originally as a Spring offensive division recently was hurried east from France, the Russian command reported. Russians said it contained "many old men."

MOSCOW REPORT

In Moscow today front dispatches gave this picture of the situation on other sectors:

Southern Front—The Red Army recaptured eight more settlements, while a Russian ski unit which had operated for two months in the German rear returned with reports of much damage done.

Leningrad-Northwest Front—Three important villages recaptured, captured field guns turned on the Germans, with the result that more than 100 were killed.

Crimea—The Germans were suffering severe air losses around Sevastopol.

GERMAN CONVICTED

WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP).—George Sylvester Viereck, alleged master mind of German propaganda in the United States, was convicted by a jury in Federal District Court tonight of withholding essential information when he registered with the State Department as an agent of German interests.

UPPER ISLAND QUOTA GAINED

Collective Victory Bond Purchases of Three Units Exceed Objective

With purchases of bonds totaling $1,245,000 [illegible] ing the Upper Island sub-division yesterday exceeded their collective quota by approximately $50,000, Victory Loan headquarters here reported last night.

The sub-division comprises the Courtenay unit and the Alberni and West Coast unit, which have surpassed their objectives, and the Nanaimo unit, which has not yet reached its objective of $570,000. Aggregate bond purchases in the Nanaimo unit up to last night were $512,200. Under the direction of W. B. Nutter and W. Bowden, the unit is making steady progress, officials said.

QUOTAS SURPASSED

The campaign in the Alberni and West Coast unit, under the direction of P. W. Bell and R. F. Hassen, yesterday raised $13,300 to increase its subscription to 106 per cent of its quota of $415,000.

Aggregate bond purchases in the Courtenay unit, at $398,200 last night, were 108 per cent of the quota of $370,000, according to returns from Alex Gillespie and J. M. Sterling.

Progress of the drive throughout the Vancouver Island division yesterday convinced headquarters officials that those units which have not yet attained their quotas will soon go over the top.

"However," a headquarters spokesman said, "some slight concern is felt for the ultimate success of the drive in the Oak Bay unit and the Saanich and Gulf Islands unit."

FINE RECORD RECALLED

In the current loan, it was pointed out, Oak Bay has been assigned a quota of $1,410,000 compared with approximately $1,000,000 in the first Victory Loan drive. The higher objective was set, it was believed, because of the splendid showing made by the unit when it was first in the division to reach its objective in the earlier drive.

"Even with this appreciable increase in its quota," the spokesman said, "Victory Loan officials are confident that Oak Bay citizens will repeat their previous performance."

The Saanich and Gulf Islands unit last night was $180,000 below its objective of $940,000; Victoria city needed $404,900 to reach its quota of $4,850,000; Esquimalt was $23,500 from its quota of $595,000.

The success of the campaign in the Cowichan unit, where total subscriptions were $719,900 yesterday, was attributed by Ferguson Hoey and Harry Menzies, organizers, to "a splendid response in the last several days from businessmen and other residents of the area."

Cites Need for Fellowship Spirit

Urging a new spirit of fellowship as the only true basis for a world order in future, Frank Dowsett, Toronto advertising man, who is addressing clubs across Canada on various aspects of Canada's war effort, spoke to members of the Kinsmen Club last night at the Empress Hotel on "The Walls of London."

Basing his remarks on A. A. Milne's poem of that title, he said that while walls built of stone are the works of man and are easily destructible, the qualities of mankind are a legacy from God and are imperishable. The spirit of the beloved people of Great Britain illustrated that "what God breathes into us stands," he said, and suggested that the fall of Singapore and other bastions was perhaps due to undue reverence for material glories of the past, and not enough for the spiritual qualities inherent in the original creation of man.

Mr. Dowsett congratulated the club on its milk fund for British children, which he described as "truly the milk of human kindness." Hal Bourne presided, and Howard Tyrrell moved the vote of thanks to the speaker.

THE PACIFIC CAMPAIGN

Whatever pessimism there is over the present situation in the Southwestern Pacific and the continuing successes of Japanese arms fails to take the long view. It concentrates chiefly on what is called the lack of preparations to meet the Japanese onslaught. It is quite true, painfully so, that preparations were inadequate, but then it is also true that Great Britain had great preoccupations in actual fields of battle and could not foresee every eventuality in all parts of the world. Even had the treacherous entry of Japan been envisaged, and the way it was engineered, it would have still been beyond the power of Great Britain, or of the British Empire combined, to have been prepared to the full to repel at once any Japanese attacks. It was realized, however, that when Japan began aggression it would be against Great Britain and the United States simultaneously, as happened. Something like a bird's eye picture of the reason for what is occurring was given by Lord Queenborough in his February message to The Royal Society of St. George. He said:

"Japan, like Germany, has been for years now under a war regime; she has been on a war footing. China has been her training ground. She has concentrated everything she possesses upon the chance of entering a world war at a moment chosen by herself—and treacherously chosen—and it would have been strange indeed if she had not achieved immediate successes against both the British and Americans in the Far East. It is true that both Premier and President have now to face stern critics of some of the grosser defaults in Far Eastern preparations, critics who are not without justification for their attacks upon 'unreadiness'. Mr. Churchill has, indeed, met them in advance, for almost his first avowal on his dramatic return home (from the United States) was that of a shared uneasiness about the Far Eastern position. But, it must be repeated and reiterated, Japan had exactly the advantage which Germany took in 1938-1939—she was in a position to make a series of successful rushes at selected objectives, and to exploit to its full the element of surprise. It is folly for military laymen, or for arm-chair statesmen, to say that there should have been no surprise. To talk so in that strain is to fail entirely to realize just what is the Far Eastern terrain, and to fail equally to realize what world war means. Complete protection from surprise in the Far East would have meant a weakening of Allied arms in Russia, vulnerability to surprise in Africa and the Mediterranean basin, and a further weakening of the nearer defences of Australasia and India. The thing that matters now is whether Japan, having extended herself, can be defeated by a succession of blows at her long lines of communications. The British First Lord, who should be in a position to judge, quite obviously thinks she can. The combined and ever-increasing tonnage of Britain and America, the growing number of planes and masses of material, make the eventual end of Japan's adventure certain—if the long delaying actions which must now be faced are properly fought and endured."

REDISTRIBUTION

The Census returns for 1941 show that the number of citizens to one member of Parliament is to be 51,034 until the next census makes a change. This is based on Quebec's stationary number of members of sixty-five. Under this plan the only two provinces that will have reduced representation after redistribution, on the basis of the Census, will be Manitoba and Saskatchewan. The population of the provinces as given in the latest Census is as follows:

Prince Edward Island	93,919
Nova Scotia	573,190
New Brunswick	453,377
Quebec	3,319,640
Ontario	3,756,632
Manitoba	722,447
Saskatchewan	887,747
Alberta	788,393
British Columbia	809,393
The Yukon	4,687
North West Territories	10,661

The two provinces that suffer as a result of the Census in losing members in the House of Commons will have just cause for complaint and the reasons are given by Mr. W. J. Fulton, of Calgary. He says: "Assuming the correctness of the population figures by provinces under the original method of establishing membership in the Commons, that is dividing the population in Quebec by sixty-five and thus getting the number of people to a constituency, the next Parliament of Canada would have the following representation: Quebec, 65; Prince Edward Island, 2; Nova Scotia, 11; New Brunswick, 9; Ontario, 74; Manitoba, 14; Saskatchewan, 17; Alberta, 15; British Columbia, 16; Yukon, 1; a total of 224, and a reduction of twenty-one from the present House membership. But, under saving clauses, Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Ontario and Alberta are protected in their present membership to the extent of fourteen seats, and only Manitoba and Saskatchewan bear the brunt of the penalties of this legislation. It is not likely that the people of Manitoba and Saskatchewan will take this lying down. Nor should they. Ontario, protected in eight seats while it loses seven, is a fruitful subject for discord. One does not need to labor its possibilities. The proper remedy at this time of war would appear to be an amendment to the B.N.A. Act containing the present provincial membership until the next decennial census. But before that time comes, should peace give the opportunity, there should be a wiping away of all impediments to the rule of population being the basis of representation, rigid and unyielding, and there should be a Quebec 'that is' rather than 'that was' as the governing factor."

NATIONAL SAFETY

When British Columbia's Members of Parliament raised the question of the defences of the Pacific Coast during the recent secret session of the House of Commons, did they overlook the desirability of asking the Minister of National Defence to dispatch Lieutenant-General A. McNaughton to British Columbia to inquire into the situation? There is no hint, so far, of his coming here, although the experiences he gathered in England on the subject of coast defence would, from the standpoint of Canada, prove of high value. It can be thought, indeed, that the Department of National Defence would need no suggestion to this end, unless it considers that the knowledge possessed in Ottawa is all-sufficient. That, apparently, is not the opinion of the British Columbia Members of Parliament, or else the subject would not have been raised at the secret session.

The one authority, above all others in the country, who should be consulted on this issue is General McNaughton. He could give no clear-cut and definite answer and make no specific recommendations without first acquainting himself with the situation as it exists and examining the nature of the Pacific coast line of Canada. If the opportunity of his presence in Canada to instruct him to make an inspection of the defences of the Pacific Coast is overlooked it can only be because the Government is not particularly immersed in this aspect of national safety. The people of British Columbia would welcome a visit from General McNaughton for such a purpose, and it should be well within the scope of the Provincial Government to recommend to Ottawa that the Canadian Corps Commander, who has been for so long on the British front line, be sent here to see for himself what is being done. There should be no jealousies in this respect between those holding high commands in the Canadian Army at home and abroad.

SERVICEMEN AND JAPANESE

It was said in this newspaper some days ago that certain Japanese dry cleaners worked overtime so as to enable them to finish the uniforms of service men who wanted these in spic and span shape for the recent Victory Loan parade. There was no denial of this statement from any of the responsible authorities, so it must be assumed to be true. On Tuesday evening a Japanese-owned car, driven by the owner, carried three blue-jackets from Esquimalt to the city. The number of the car was taken, the owner is known and it is known also that within the last few days the vehicle was transferred to the ownership of a white man in order to prevent its seizure by the authorities.

These are matters that call for some investigation. It is quite legitimate that servicemen, as well as others, should go to Japanese dry cleaners with their clothing, but there is a poor impression left about the lack of patriotism being pursued in such a practice, the more especially at a time when the avowed policy of the authorities is to remove those of Japanese origin from this protected area. Perhaps even a worse impression still is left because bluejackets should avail themselves of the hospitality of a Japanese for conveyance to the city and laugh and joke with the driver in the course of the trip. This incident, and the fact that so many servicemen continue to patronize Japanese dry cleaners, are matters by no means palatable to those who are anxious to secure British Columbia's safety from within.

In his apologia for the plebiscite the most astounding statement made by the Prime Minister is that the Government has not now the power to enforce conscription for overseas service. It has that power under the Militia Act; it has it, too, under the War Measures Act. The legislation exists and can be enforced without consulting Parliament. A pre-election promise by a political party neither rescinds nor renders null and void any law of the land.

In Great Britain one of the sources of scrap iron is scrapped irons from golfers' lockers. Has this been thought of in the salvage campaign being undertaken in this country?

FROM: AN ESSAY ON MAN

. . . Leave all meaner things
To low ambition, and the pride of kings.
Let us (since life can little more supply
Than just to look about us and to die)
Expatiate free o'er all this scene of man;
A mighty maze! but not without a plan;
A wild, where weeds and flowers promiscuous shoot;
Or garden, tempting with forbidden fruit.
Together let us beat this ample field,
Try what the open, what the covert yield;
The latent tracts, the giddy heights, explore
Of all who blindly creep, or sightless soar;
Eye Nature's walks, shoot folly as it flies,
And catch the manners living as they rise;
Laugh where we must, be candid where we can;
But vindicate the ways of God to man.

—Alexander Pope.

A SPANISH PROVERB

One of them, a grave and sensible man . . . repeated a Spanish proverb, which though I cannot repeat in just the same words that he spoke it in, yet I remember I made it into an English proverb of my own, thus:

In trouble to be troubled
Is to have your trouble doubled.

—Defoe: "Robinson Crusoe."

DAY OF DELIVERANCE

Citizens of London, you must not think to fight in the sighs of your wives and children. Therefore when you hear the drums beat, say not, I beseech you, "I am not of the trained band," nor this, nor that, nor the other, but doubt not to go out to the work, and this shall be the day of your deliverance. What is it that we fight for? It is for our religion, and for our God, and for our liberty, and all. And what is it they fight for? For their lusts, for their wills, and for their tyranny, to make us slaves and to overthrow all.—General Lord Brooke.

REHABILITATION (9)

Demobilization is too negative a word. The job that will face every land after this conflict will be rehabilitation, of which the re-establishment of veterans will be only one part. It is the part, however, of which this series treats. We shall need organization, a plan, and accumulating reserves of service money and jobs; besides the goodwill, the skill and the help of every citizen.

* * *

The organization will need to be nation-wide. It should include the Federal, Provincial and Municipal Governments throughout the land; reinforced by all civil agencies whose services can be brought to bear on any phase of the subject. Its task will be human salvage; to make individuals whole, to fit them back into civil life, and to get them going again as self-starters in the human economy. With its centre at the nation's capital, the branches of the organization should extend to the smallest frontier settlement; and be as alive and real there as anywhere in the system. The ideal would be to have the organization entirely voluntary, or as close to that as human ingenuity may devise.

The plan can only be a skeleton one at first. The problem cannot be fully measured until it fully exists. As broad a base as possible should be found for that plan; aiming at distribution, segregation into smaller parts, and the return of every man and of every woman to their homes, in so far as that is found practicable. Its obstacles will be consolidation, massing and delay. Its open gates will be decentralization, unit treatment, and co-operative action throughout the whole nation. The task will be to move human beings back into normal life.

It will require reserves to cushion the impact of peace, or more correctly to meet the combined forces of dislocation when a full-tide war effort ceases. There must be reserves of hospital service, of individual direction and re-training, of follow-up work in the welfare field; a pooling and reservation of a nation's vast capacity to help human beings in need of it. Reserves of money will be needed, from the individual to the nation itself; money to supply services, to finance training, to give work. A rehabilitation tax may have to be considered. Reserves of work there must be, both under public and private management; the putting aside of work that will wait, and which in peace-time will be doubly valuable. To reserve, in this sense, means to accumulate. We should not forget that, because accumulation is a slow process.

It is difficult to visualize the post-war world. In the immediate post-war period armies, navies and air forces will still be on duty, to some extent. There will be a vast policing job to be done in aggressor lands; with forces of occupation a necessity, until war temperatures have subsided. That may give us a little time, but not much. Demobilization, when it comes, will be the drawing home of our own folk; a tremendous consolidation in itself, more than all immigration has given us in a decade or two past. I have said there will need to be service hospitals. I believe that we shall need rest camps and training camps as well; the latter to deal with outdoor training such as reforestation, prospecting, timber cruising, log scaling, land-water-snow surveying, and the like. Here we will need to open our minds, not close them. Outdoor jobs will be wanted by the thousand.

Indoor jobs will be needed as well. It is here that public offices, corporations, big and little businesses, and at least light industry can be prospected with a seeing-eye. As a nation we are "inspected" at every turn. Veterans, loyal, trustworthy, proved, make fine inspectors, if we can get the commissionaire complex out of our minds. Some veterans will be highly trained; including those at sea, those in the air, and others connected with mechanical divisions of army life. Many will be specialists. Science and research will yield some places; transportation, public service and other occupations, many. But the reserves should be listed, and built up.

Work will not fit for some who will return. The conditions of enlistment have already insured a large pension list, particularly in respect to married men under arms. That was not so last time; and the difference will have to be measured and absorbed. Men and women, both, will return this time. There will be those with battle service, and others without it. There will be individuals who will be wholly fit, partially fit or completely unfit to resume the ordinary battle of life. To each will be owed a just and a generous return.

Canada, however, is still a new land. Our means of life have not been sealed or settled. Pioneering will continue for many years to come. Beside the old, there will be the very new; that which war itself will have given to peace by way of invention and change. Within that field room can, and must, be found for everyone, veteran and civilian alike. It will not be an easy task; nor one that is solved without thought. Forethought will be worth its weight in fine gold. We shall need an organization, a plan, and reserves. The organization must be nation-wide; the plan must be left open at all its ends; and the reserves are what we should be thinking about now.

We often think that political pull is used by misfits and others of inferior intellect and ability who cannot otherwise succeed in the world . . . What happened to the cost-of-living bonus the City Council intended to discuss early in February? Has it been deftly sidetracked? . . . If laws of the country were simplified so the average man could understand what they are all about many barristers and solicitors would have to change their professions . . . Remanding a prisoner in court often creates mental torture when the accused commences to worry about sentence or judgment. There is no such word as sleep in the navy. Instead they say, "get your head down" . . . A police officer with years of experience told us there is no such thing as a loyal Japanese as far as Canada is concerned . . . Wonder how many enemy aliens with altered names are in our midst? We are fighting other nations besides Japan . . . Wonder if the Japanese will send submarines to Vancouver Island, a fleet of transports protected by warships and planes, or sneak a plane carrier or two up the West Coast? Long ago we learned there is no such expression as "It cannot happen here." Laugh if you like . . . Why not alter firearms regulations so every British national could secure without difficulty rifles, shotguns and plenty of ammunition? We may need them . . . Hospitality Group Appeals for Homes

The hospitality committee is appealing for names of citizens willing to put up men of the three services for a few days after they have been discharged from hospital.

Such invitations may involve extra work, and only certain homes would be suitable, but any citizens interested in this work are asked to communicate with Miss Hart, G 5425, for full particulars.

During the past week the committee has been arranging entertainment and home hospitality for visiting sailors.

The time used is Pacific Standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

To find the depth of water on the sill at the Esquimalt drydock at any time, add 30 feet to the height of high water as above given.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily Colonist of March 6, 1892)

Fraser River Gold—It is said that parties are buying or taking up any placer ground on the banks of the Fraser above Lillooet, on which water can be brought for hydraulicking. Numerous inquiries are received from the outside in regard to mining ground.

A Dangerous Playmate—"Jumbo," the heavy road roller of the corporation, came within an ace of crushing to death a little youngster who was enjoying a stolen ride while the machine was working on Humboldt Street yesterday. The possible accident was averted by the prompt action of a city police officer.

Revised Statute—Chief Shepperd has made it a rule for the guidance of police court proceedings that all Klootchman witnesses must absolutely suspend gum-chewing operations on entering the box to give evidence.

Best in the Country—The apparatus ordered in England by the Victoria School of Arms has arrived, all in good order, and is already in use in the drill shed, where the soldier boys are practising hard for the coming tournament. The spring bayonet, practice sabre, pads, etc., are the first of their kind to make their appearance in this part of the world.

PEACE RIVER OIL

Sir,—It has recently been announced that the Provincial Government proposes to continue drilling for oil at Commotion Creek in the Peace River district. Dr. Hume, of the Dominion Geological Service, recommended that drilling should be continued for another two hundred feet when further consideration could be given to the situation as then developed.

The position which I wish to make clear and to impress upon the public is this, namely, that whatever the results may be in the present hole the Government should continue drilling until the field is proved. The present hole is now down some 5,600 feet and my understanding is that another 2,000 feet, or perhaps more, will in all probability be required to determine definitely the possibilities of the present hole.

Under any circumstances this great potential resource of oil in the Peace River district should be retained for the benefit of the people. Here is a virgin field of huge area with immense possibilities, which can be exploited by the Government to secure for the people a source of revenue which will pay not only present debts, but future capital expenditures of the Province.

I am fearful of the situation as it now stands. The present Provincial Administration is in favor of private exploitation and I warn the public of this, that once the territory is alienated it will never be recovered. However palatable to the public alienation may be made to appear, the fact is that the big opportunity for the people of the Province will have been lost.

I do not advocate that the Government should enter into the field of retail distribution of petroleum products, but that the petroleum be sold to existing industry for distribution.

If private corporations get hold of the field they will use it to supplement their present sources of supply and we will diddle along for a generation before the Province gets anything worth while out of it and then only a modicum of what could be obtained through the Government controlling the whole output.

Under Government ownership the people will get much more revenue and users of the product will get the product for less money.

We were supposed to be frightened when it was said that it might cost several million dollars to exploit the field. Well, what of it? If private endeavor is allowed in, it will cost whatever amount is necessary to prove the field and where do the private corporations get their money to carry on development work? Of course they get it from the profits which they make from the sale of their products.

I find no fault with private endeavor for looking after their own interests, but surely the public interests must be protected.

Argument has been used that no money should be spent upon this work during the war period. No one knows how long the war will last. Developments during the past few weeks may make it a long task and instead of stopping or restricting work, new work should be begun and pushed with all possible speed. What finer contribution could British Columbia render as a province than to establish a new source of petroleum owned and controlled by the people.

I suggest, therefore, that all public bodies and individuals wake up to the importance of this matter and insist that a policy of governmental development shall proceed continuously and ownership and control maintained in perpetuity for the public benefit.

An expert is sometimes at a disadvantage when playing with an average player. Not infrequently the latter makes bids that he knows to be wrong, merely on the expectation that his partner will be able to perform a miracle. In a sense, it was too bad that the expert declarer in today's hand brought home the contract. Success may have given Norin the idea that crime pays.

*A feeble attempt to "bluff."

North's persistent spade raising on only two trumps, was atrocious and led to an absurd contract. Six diamonds would have been easy.

West opened the heart king. Dummy's ace won and, after recovering from his shock at finding only two spades in dummy, declarer let the spade jack ride. West won with the queen and, having noted declarer's drop of the jack on the first heart lead, was afraid that an attempt to cash the heart queen would merely result in the establishment of the 10 spot, hence he shifted to a club. Dummy's ace won and the spade jack was led. Naturally, East did not cover and the jack held. The club ace was cashed and a low club was ruffed. At this point, declarer had to resist the temptation to lay down the spade ace in the hope of capturing the king. He reasoned shrewdly, however, that if East had held only three spades to the king he probably would have covered the second lead in the hope of establishing a possible nine spot in West's hand.

Declarer carefully cashed his other high diamond honor, then entered dummy with the diamond queen to lead the established clubs. East was "couped"; if he ruffed in, declarer would overruff, draw the last trump, and cash good diamonds. His actual heart discarding was just as satisfactory to declarer, who discarded diamonds and finally exited from dummy with a heart. The A-9 of spades remained over the K-4 and gave declarer the last two tricks.

West's defence had been very shortsighted. The lead of the heart queen would have defeated the contract. True, the 10 would have been established, but declarer could not afford to ruff a heart and a club and thus could not have "couped" the spade king.

SUFFER IN SILENCE

BERNE, March 5 (AP)—With many of the country's dentists in military service, toothaches are becoming widespread in Germany. The Koelnische Zeitung of Cologne reported. "There simply are not enough dentists." The paper urged the people to be patient, to consult a dentist only "when the pain becomes too great or chewing is impaired seriously."

Cars May Be Laid Up By Million for Lack Of Rubber for Tires

United States' Car Owners Given Blunt Warning Not to Hope for Even Retreads in the Next Three Years or Longer

WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP).—Owners of 22,500,000 automobiles now operating in the United States received a blunt and gloomy warning today that they can not hope to get any new or retreaded tires in the next three years or longer, barring unforeseen war victories or miracles.

Leon Henderson, director of civilian supply and price administrator, announced the startling details of the critical wartime rubber shortage at a public hearing of the special Senate committee investigating national defence.

NO NEW RUBBER

After grimly testifying that there would not be a "single pound of new crude rubber" available either for new tires or retreads on some 30,000,000 automobiles of ordinary citizens, Henderson said "that means starkly and simply that the majority of these cars are likely to be laid up when their present tires are worn out and the ingenuity of their owners has been exhausted."

Later the defence official modified this a bit by saying officials still hoped to keep some 7,500,000 of these cars operating for defence workers on tires made largely from reclaimed rubber during the next three years.

Henderson said it would be a "near miracle" if synthetic rubber production could reach the hoped-for goals of 300,000 tons next year and 600,000 tons by 1944. He specifically cautioned against expecting any substantial rubber production from Brazil, or guayule plants in this hemisphere.

ENGINEERS START SURVEYING ROUTE

committee of the United States Cabinet, of which he is a member.

Equipment is being moved in before the break-up so that not a minute will be lost in actual work if the proposed route proves to be suitable. He said the project "is urgently needed and is being pushed with all possible speed."

It could not be learned here how far the Canadian Government has been committed in approving the highway, although it has been taken for granted that approval by the Canadian members of the Joint Defence Board would reflect the general views of the Government.

The present plan is to combine survey work with a rough, pioneer road and to rush it through this year by the use of thousands of men, and machines thrown into disuse by the war. The United States would put up the money which, for a twenty-four-foot gravel highway on one of the routes nearer the Coast, totaled $50,000,000 and yearly maintenance of $1,000,000.

WORKS RECEIVE FAIR RECEPTION

Public Not Now Biased Against Music by Foreigners, Singer Says

The war has proved that the listening public no longer regards with nationalistic bias the performance of works by foreign composers, whatever their nationality, Risë Stevens, mezzo-soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, said in an interview at the Empress Hotel yesterday.

Miss Stevens, who will be heard in recital at the Royal Victoria Theatre tonight, added that the present conflict has improved the standards of musical taste, and will make possible the organization of traveling opera companies, in which aspirants to operatic roles may receive their training. Some of these, she said, are already formed and active.

CAN ACHIEVE SUCCESS

Asked what prospects face young singers now that they are no longer able to receive Continental training, Miss Stevens replied: "If they go about their careers correctly, they can make a success of them. We have many Continental coaches in America now.

"Of course, the pupils will lack the experience of singing before European audiences but they can receive training in opera companies here."

An encouraging sign of the times to musicians, Miss Stevens said, is that conductors are doing all they can to encourage young composers. This policy, she remarked, should have been followed long ago.

TOUR AMERICAN CAMPS

Discussing her present tour, Miss Stevens said, regretfully, that she would be unable to sing for servicemen here. In Toronto she sang for an enthusiastic audience of airmen at No. 1 Manning Pool of the R.C.A.F., and described them as "very fine boys." After touring military camps of the American Northwest, she will return to Hollywood to make a picture, which will probably be, she said, a "straight comedy."

"I would like to do comedy," Miss Stevens remarked. "People need it."

Though she began her career with radio work, Miss Stevens said she now confines this branch of her activities to guest appearances on radio shows. She faces a busy schedule next season, for she has two new films in prospect and also a Fall tour of the United States. Whether Canadian cities would be visited during the tour, Miss Stevens said she did not know.

Though she has not yet done so, Miss Stevens intends to join the "Bundles for Bluejackets" organization, which furnishes canteen and other services for men of the United States Navy. Of her trip to Victoria from Seattle, she had little to say, for the passage was a stormy one, and on arriving at the hotel Miss Stevens went straight to bed for a rest.

Her husband, Walter Surovy, who is also her agent, planned her Canatour, Miss Stevens said. Theodore Saidenberg, her accompanist, travelled to Victoria with the singer and her private secretary.

AIR MINISTRY GIVES REPORT ON ACTIVITY

against nine targets in Germany during the month. Naval docks and shipbuilding yards at Kiel were bombed three nights in succession, while Mannheim received two attacks.

PORTS ARE RAIDED

In enemy-occupied territory, harbor and port facilities used by enemy shipping were bombed ten times, with three raids each on Le Havre and Ostend and two on Brest. Bomber Command planes also made two sweeps over the North Sea and laid mines on three occasions, while fighter aircraft made seven daylight sweeps of occupied territory and five night attacks on enemy airdromes, including the one night of the parachute troops' raid on Bruneval.

Tripoli was bombed ten times, Bengasi eight, Berka six and Martuba five in Middle East operations, while Royal Air Force planes gave extensive covering support to land forces during their withdrawal from coastal areas.

The offensive against shipping was on a reduced scale owing to unsuitable conditions over the seas and because of cloud formations, which made observation of results difficult. In routine attacks in the North Sea and off the Atlantic Coast seven ships were sunk and one was damaged, and one "E" boat was set on fire.

ATTACK ON WARSHIPS

In addition, planes of all commands took part in the large-scale attack on the Nazi warships which escaped from Brest, and on their escort. It is believed both battle cruisers and many escorting vessels were damaged.

In the Mediterranean area Royal Air Force and naval aircraft sank and damaged ten Axis ships, including two cruisers, two destroyers, merchant vessels and a tanker.

In carrying out the offensive against German-occupied territory and in the North Sea, as well as in the defence of Britain, thirty-five enemy aircraft were destroyed for a loss of eighty-five, including thirty-six Royal Air Force and six naval aircraft shot down in the attack on German naval concentration. In the Middle East sixty-seven enemy aircraft were destroyed. The R.A.F. lost seventy-five.

Details of Far East activity were incomplete "owing to the exigencies of the situation," the summary said, but figures based on communiques showed the R.A.F., the Royal Australian Air Force and Netherlands East Indies aircraft carried out ten attacks against seven targets. The main effort of the Allied forces, however, was directed in repelling enemy air attacks and against invasion concentrations of shipping.

The figure of thirty-two ships sunk or set afire or damaged was stated to be "of necessity not complete and lacks confirmation." It did not include damage inflicted by United States aircraft.

that this Province will tie-in there, linking with Fort St. John. While disappointment was felt, Provincial Government circles accepted the decision philosophically, promising every co-operation with the construction of the road, no matter where it may be located.

Two field surveys and a quantity of topographical and other data had already been gathered by British Columbia on the coastal routes, and this material turned over to the Dominion from time to time. The Provincial Departments of Lands and Works both participated in the exploration, upon which considerable sums were expended.

W.A. Reports Are Read at Conference

Business sessions of the thirty-eighth annual meeting of the Columbia Diocesan Board of the W.A. continued yesterday in the Memorial Hall, a public missionary meeting taking place in the evening.

Mrs. Brown, Colwood, had charge of the morning prayers. The Junior secretary's reports, read by Mrs. R. C. Keane, told of 325 members; Mrs. E. J. Harris, Little Helpers' secretary, reported a successful year and a membership of 1,220 children. Other reports included Miss Cox, Living Message secretary; Mrs. Bassett, of the Mothers' Union, who reported 170 members. Nearly 1,000 articles of clothing had been sent to England and a substantial sum of money distributed among mothers there. Mrs. Nation reported 156 garments made by the Girls' Friendly Society for the air raid sufferers in England. Lady Lake reported $461.50 sent to the Anglican Theological College Bursary Fund, and mentioned that among the students this year is the first Indian boy from Alert Bay School.

Rev. W. Turner was in charge of the midday prayers and gave an address on the subject, "Go Ye Into All the World." He emphasized the importance of missionary work in carrying out the command, and of financial support. The giving of money should be sacrificial, he said, and deplored the methods of raising money for the church by means of raffles and gambling.

AFTERNOON SESSION

Mrs. Ringrose (Courtenay) led the afternoon prayers. Miss K. Robbins, for many years a missionary in Honan, was the speaker of the afternoon and appeared in a beautiful Chinese costume. For three years she lived in Japanese-occupied China with Miss Kelsey, who is still working at St. Paul's Hospital there, and is interned in her own compound. She is the only missionary left in occupied China, Miss Robbins reported. Owing to the fact that money may not be sent from Canada, Miss Kelsey will be without salary, Miss Robbins went on, but the hospital was filling a great need among the Chinese people and is the only British hospital which has been allowed to remain open since the occupation by the Japanese. Several Canadian missionaries were located in unoccupied China and, despite bombing and great difficulties, the work was going on. Bishop Tsen was given great praise for his ministry, and in Shensi, a missionary diocese of the Chinese Church, the bishop was doing a tremendous work. Miss Robbins reported that great interest in Christianity was being shown throughout China and the demand for Bibles could not be met, despite the fact that the Bible Society was turning out one Bible every ten seconds. She went on to tell of the splendid work and interest of the Chinese Women's Missionary Service League, an organization corresponding to the W.A.

Mrs. Heber Cooke moved a vote of thanks to Miss Robbins.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP

A Diocesan life membership was presented to Mrs. G. T. Hughes by St. Mark's Branch and the members of the executive. The service was read by Mrs. F. J. Brimer, the badge presented by Mrs. O. M. Prentice, and a bouquet given to Mrs. Hughes by Mrs. C. Porter.

Rev. Clarence Lee gave a report of the Oriental work here and spoke of the inadequacy of the mission hall and the lack of a regular lady worker. On a recent trip to Eastern Canada, Mr. Lee had collected funds which, together with what was being given by the Victoria Chinese, was sufficient to provide for a new building. A young Chinese will shortly be ordained in Vancouver, Mr. Lee said.

The following resolution from a meeting held in June called by the Bishop of Kootenay and held in the Y.W.C.A., Vancouver, was endorsed: "That provision should be made by amendment of the School Act of British Columbia for time during school hours for the Christian instruction of all children by recognized teachers either on the school premises or elsewhere, subject to the right of parent or guardian to withdraw his or her child from such instruction."

It was also decided that the Junior W.A. should adopt the badge and stripe system.

Classes Organized At Shawnigan Lake

On Tuesday afternoon in the S.L.A.A. Hall, Shawnigan, an encouraging number of women gathered to form the nucleus of a St. John Ambulance first-aid class to be formed under the auspices of the local A.R.P. organization. Mrs. G. H. Garrad was elected chairman of the meeting. Mr. H. G. Webber, of the local A.R.P. civilian committee, addressed the gathering, and explained the connection between the first-aid classes and the A.R.P. work. The following committee was formed to look after arrangements: Mrs. Garrad, Mrs. J. C. Morley, secretary; Mrs. Hooper and Mrs. K. Bloomquist. Classes were arranged to take place on Thursday evenings at 7:30 o'clock, starting on March 12. Mrs. A. Cudlip, a qualified nurse, who will start the classes until a qualified St. John's instructor is secured, spoke in explanation of the work to be covered. Men's first-aid classes have been started in Shawnigan with classes being held Monday evenings.

Navy League Chapter

The Navy League Chapter will meet on Monday, March 9, at 7:45 p.m., at headquarters.

Douglas Chapter

In tribute to the memory of the late A. S. Christie, husband of the regent of the Sir James and Lady Douglas Chapter, it was decided to forego the celebration of the birthday of Victoria luncheon usually held on March 14. A fund will be opened instead and the price of the luncheon will be donated by the members and friends interested to the war work of the chapter. Mrs. S. R. Bowden presided at the meeting held yesterday, when Mrs. A. I. Cowan was specially welcomed. Mrs. F. P. Beckett gave the Echoes report. The war work report showed forty-two articles of clothing, one packet of leather, two boxes of lead-foil and ten woolen squares were recorded. Regret was expressed at the absence through illness of Miss Herd, treasurer. Mrs. May acted as war convener for the meeting, and the secretary read the war and general reports. The chapter decided to apply for membership in the Navy League of Canada. Miss E. Hill was the standard bearer and tea was served at the close of the meeting, under the convenership of Miss K. Jaffray.

Mine Sweepers Are Supplied With Woolies

The Victoria Depot of the Royal Naval War Comforts Committee is now closing case No. 27 for the crews of mine sweepers and other small craft. The chief contents are Mellor string mitts, seaboot stockings, long jerseys, socks and fingered woolen gloves.

Writing from an Eastern Canadian port, Chief Officer Mark R. Smith, of a tanker registered at London, writes: "On arrival in our last United Kingdom port we were fortunate enough to receive a number of comforts parcels for distribution among the crew of this vessel. Many of the comforts came from your excellent depot, and I am taking this opportunity of thanking you and your fellow workers for your thought and work in preparing these garments. Believe me, they are well appreciated by all, and will be put to a good use during these cold Winter months on the Atlantic tracks."

ICELAND TROOPS

Another parcel of woolies was sent to Iceland and a letter from Iceland was sent early in December and only recently arrived in Victoria, said: "The Commanding Officer wishes me to send you sincere thanks for the comforts safely received. Conditions of service make such a gift very much appreciated. Please accept the good wishes of the officers and men of the battalion."

LONDON THANKS

Commander J. H. Drummond, writing at the end of January from London, says: "Your cases Nos. 22 and 23 have duly arrived, for which I am very much obliged. The comforts allocated to Miss Ingleby are being forwarded to her and the remainder are being prepared for dispatch to a naval base in accordance with Admiralty instructions. We are most grateful to you and all your workers for this further consignment of comforts, which will be very appreciated by the men of the navy in this cold weather."

COMFORTS FOR ALL

The headquarters for handling the knitted garments for the Royal Navy in Eaton Square, London, writes: "Under a new scheme of distribution the port amenities officers are responsible for distributing comforts at the ports, and they obtain their supplies from this and other organizations engaged in collecting such comforts. Records of all issues are being kept, and are forwarded with ships to new bases. Comforts are issued in accordance with the requests of the commanding officer of each ship."

R.C.N. SUPPLIED

In the R.C.N. on the Pacific Coast, crew members apply for necessary comforts direct to the ship commanding officers. The latter obtains the needed articles from the store.

Major Longstaff has been shown the stores of woolen comforts in the Royal Canadian Dockyard and the regulations covering issue. He has found that the main points in the Admiralty scheme are being carried out in the Pacific Command, and is satisfied that there is no obstacle to any rating obtaining necessary woolen comforts.

Tea Will Aid British Bomb Victims Fund

Anglican Church Work Graphically Described

The loneliness of isolation, the hardships which have to be overcome on account of scattered population and the utterly insufficient stipends of the clergy were points emphasized by Rev. F. P. Clark, of Holy Trinity Anglican Church, Vancouver, in an address which he gave at the Memorial Hall last evening before a large gathering of members of Columbia Diocesan W.A. and the general public. Mr. Clark, who has worked for many years in Saskatchewan, presented in simple and straightforward languge a picture of the church on the Prairie, and appealed for the sympathetic support of all church people on behalf of those who labor so faithfully, in many cases against terrific odds.

CHALLENGE TO CHURCH

Great interest was being taken at the present time, he said, in theories of reconstruction after the war, and he foresaw a back-to-the-land movement which would follow in the wake of the closing of wartime industries in the cities. It was important that clergy should be provided in the rural districts and that the church should see that these men were adequately paid. He spoke feelingly of what had already been done towards the building up of a strong, rural church. He told of the preponderance of foreigners, chiefly from Central Europe, whose background and different idealisms had been a detriment to their fitting in to the Canadian scene.

MANY PROBLEMS

The Prairie settlers had been obliged to face many hardships, not the least being worms and grasshoppers, drought, mortgages and interest, lack of money to replenish worn-out machinery and the very high cost of marketing their wheat. Because of this lack of money the farmers had been unable to provide much towards the stipends of the clergy, many of whom were carrying on their work on funds as low as $800 per year.

BISHOP'S PURSE

Breakdown in health had resulted in many of the clergy being forced to leave the Prairie parishes, and letters read by Mr. Clark from clergymen whom he knew in Saskatchewan, gave a further insight into the privations they faced. This was a problem confronting the church in Canada, he said, and one which must be squarely faced. He mentioned the "Bishop's Purse" fund to which donations might be sent by anyone interested in the work, and which is administered by the Bishop of Qu'Appelle.

Mrs. F. J. Brimer, president of the Diocesan Board of the W.A., expressed the thanks of the audience to the speaker. Right Rev. H. E. Sexton, Bishop of Columbia, was in the chair. After the address a social hour was enjoyed in the gymnasium where refreshments were served. Mrs. C. A. Goodwin delighted the guests with her solos, "The Empire Is Marching" and "Down Here," with Mrs. John Gough as accompanist. Mrs. A. E. de L. Nunns played a charming violin solo, "Arabesque" (Bohm), with Mrs. E. J. Harris as accompanist, and Miss Nora Garcin recited "Reggie."

Continuing the discussion of last month on "How Can We Prevent Juvenile Delinquency?" three new factors will be presented. Dr. Edith Lucas, of the Education Extension Department, will speak on the part education can play; Mrs. Spurgin, of the Family Welfare Department, will discuss home training, and Miss Lina Mess, of the Children's Aid, will also show how the various considerations surrounding juvenile employment affect juvenile delinquency

International Night Held by Club Women

"International night" was celebrated last evening in the clubrooms by the Victoria Business and Professional Women's Club and the Zelotes Club, when sixty members and guests enjoyed the varied programme and unusually interesting travelogue. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Reed Paige Clark, representing the United States of America; Miss Zuur, the Netherlands; Flying Officer Vadim Stavrakov, Russia; Miss Bessie Hope, China, and Major and Mrs. J. P. Simon, the Canadian Institute of International Affairs.

Mrs. Madge Hall, vice-president of the British Columbia Federation, welcomed the guests and reviewed the beginning of "international night," when in 1934 it was held with a representation of twenty-six countries, and this year the affiliated countries numbered only seven. Members kept alive the hope that in the future when peace is restored the world might again be ringed with the international federation.

Miss Bessie Hope sang two charming songs and Miss Patricia Fitz-Patrick, president of the Zelotes Club, addressed the meeting briefly.

Mrs. Madge Hall and Miss Elsie Richardson had charge of the evening, and refreshments were served by members of the Zelotes Club.

Canadians Must Expect Attacks on Shipping Close To Sea Coast

OTTAWA, March 5 (CP). (Advance)—Lt.-Cmdr. William Strange of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve today urged Canadians not to let submarine activity near the Eastern seaboard have too prominent a place in their minds.

"It is obvious to everyone who reads the news that submarines now are operating not far from the North American coasts," he said in an address to the Ottawa Canadian Club.

"This is no occasion for surprise, and certainly none for anything approaching dismay . . . Such attacks may make the headlines, but they should not—in the public mind—be permitted to occupy unreasonable prominence.

"They may alter the point of attack, but they do not alter the fundamentals of the Battle of the Atlantic. Merchant ships must still be kept upon the seas; the transfer of vital supplies to the people in the front line of Britain must go on. . . .

"The experience may be a new one to us, but it is an old one to the British. The spectacle of survivors is as familiar to them as is the sound of bombs and depth-charges being dropped upon the malefactor. The necessity for little talk and much action is well understood by them."

HOLDS THE KEYS

Commander Strange, who recently came from Toronto to join the staff of the plans and operations division at Naval Service Headquarters, said the Battle of the Atlantic—the "trench warfare of the seas"—holds the key to Britain's ability to hold out against the Axis.

The Royal Canadian Navy had an honorable place in the forefront of the fight. By far the heaviest portion of its activity was in the North Atlantic zone, where ocean traffic is not found in peacetime.

The figures of U-boats sunk were not the real measure of success, he continued.

"Our success can only be measured by the quantity of material landed on the other side," he said.

"That there had been a notable success in this fundamental matter is well known."

VANCOUVER, March 5 (CP).—Funeral services, conducted by Rev. Canon Harold G. King, of St. Paul's Anglican Church, were held here today for Joseph van Wyck, fifty-eight, general manager of hotels, Canadian National Railways, who died suddenly here Monday.

Burial took place in Forest Lawn Memorial Park here, amid floral tributes from all parts of the Dominion.

Honorary pallbearers included C. A. Cotterell, assistant general manager, Canadian Pacific Railway, Vancouver; W. J. Mylett, manager of the Hotel Vancouver; W. T. Moodie, general superintendent; Walter Hately, general freight agent, and William Stapelton, general passenger agent for Canadian National Railways here, and John Schofield, chief architect for Canadian National Railways and Trans-Canada Air Lines, Montreal.

HOW SHE DEFEATED CHRONIC BRONCHITIS

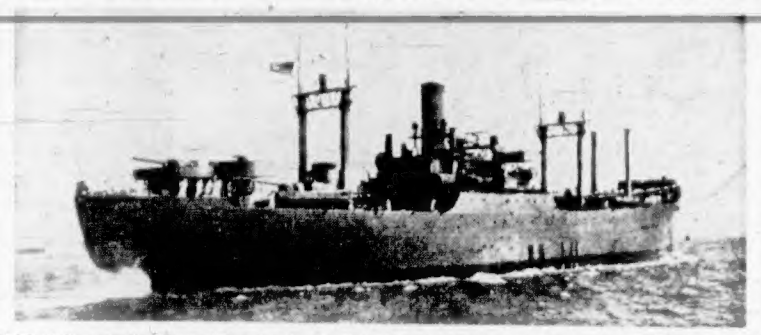
Do you cough and wheeze all night long, as Mrs. Jas. V. Kane, R.R. 2 Westport, Ont., used to do? Then read how she conquered her trouble. "Twenty minutes after I took my first dose of RAZ-MAH, I had most blessed relief," she writes. "The weight seemed to go off my chest, I could breathe easily, and my cough loosened so the phlegm came up with no difficulty." You, too, will get relief from $1 worth—or your money back. 50c and $1 at druggists. adv

Rail Employees Subscribe Over Million Dollars

WINNIPEG, March 5.—One million and a quarter dollars is the amount subscribed to the Second Victory Loan by employees of the Canadian National Railways, western region, according to a statement released today by W. R. Devenish, general manager. This amount includes subscriptions received up to midnight of March 3.

The Canadian National objective for the Victory Loan was based on a $50 bond for every employee on the region and this amount has already been oversubscribed. With the National objective for the Second Victory Loan increased to $900,000,000, every effort is being made by the railway to increase, by a substantial amount, their individual allotment.

Ran Ashore in Raging Atlantic Storm



U.S.S. Pollux, supply ship, which ran aground off the Newfoundland coast in company with the United States destroyer Truxton. An estimated 189 officers and men were drowned in the raging seas which smashed the vessels against the towering cliffs. The rescued men were found clinging to the ledge of the cliff, and reached safety with the aid of a bosun's chair slung over the 200-foot cliff.

Output for Year May Be 8,000,000 Tons of Shipping

Mass production of merchant ships was achieved by American shipbuilders during December last, when yards all over the United States sent twenty-six large vessels down the ways to wet basins for final fitting out, thereby approximating the goal of "a ship a day," the monthly Bulletin of the American Bureau of Shipping reveals.

The excellent showing made in December is taken as an indication that shipbuilders are now prepared to undertake the task of producing some 8,000,000 deadweight tons of ships this year. Ship completions remained relatively moderate in December, although surpassing the same month in 1940. A total of eleven new ocean-going vessels were delivered.

Total contracts held by American builders on January 1 called for 1,101 ships of all kinds with a gross of 6,836,670 tons. Of these, 835 of 6,650,000 gross tons were large merchant vessels.

By virtue of the twenty-six launchings in December, which represented 196,691 gross and 281,535 deadweight tons, the total number of merchant vessels of 2,000 gross tons and larger sent down the ways in 1941 reached 127 of 990,964 gross and 1,435,039 deadweight tons.

Arrange to Carry Air Letter Cards To War Prisoners

OTTAWA, March 5 (CP).—Postmaster General Mulock today announced that arrangements were being made to carry "air letter cards" to prisoners of war in Germany, at a cost of ten cents per card from any point in Canada to destination.

He made the announcement in the House of Commons and said arrangements were under way for a similar arrangement on a reciprocal basis in all countries where prisoners of war are held.

BRITISH ORDER FOR CANNED HERRING IS 56,150 CASES SHORT

VANCOUVER, March 5 (CP).—The Federal Department of Fisheries' weekly bulletin issued today shows that British Columbia on February 28 was just 56,150 cases short of filling the British Government order for 1,600,000 cases of canned herring.

Fishery Department officials said it is believed the catch is now well over 1,550,000 cases, but that unless catches in the northern area of British Columbia increase in the next week it is unlikely the order will be filled.

Catches in the northern area, the only district still open to commercial fishing, have been very poor since February 28. Fishing ends March 10.

AIRMEN DESCRIBE PART IN RAIDS

SEE WORKS AFIRE

"Everything went as it should go," he said. "We couldn't help but find our target. The whole works was on fire and if anyone was still working there when we left I'd be surprised."

"One building looked like a burned-out Roman candle," said P.O. E. D. McCormack, twenty-four-year-old navigator from Estevan, Sask. It was his third operational flight and the aircraft in which he was flying came back with a few holes in wing and tail. With him on the trip was Sgt. Pilot J. C. A. Marcotte, Prudhomme, Sask.

The pilot took his crew on a sight-seeing tour over Paris, and as the machine headed back home a voice in the aircraft was heard singing "The Last Time I Saw Paris."

P.O. Bob Callaghan, Calgary and Salt Spring Island, who is the squadron's gunner leader, described the attack as "wonderful."

A MASS OF FLAME

"I was over the thing, and everything was just as it should have been. There were bags of fire, the target area was one mass of flames and the reflection could be seen from the French coast."

The "simply superb flight" was described as a "picnic" by P.O. Kenneth Hobson, Winnipeg, captain of another Wellington.

Hobson said he went over the target once at 6,000 feet to look at it, then down to 3,000 to bomb.

"We then flew over Paris."

One of the disappointed members of the squadron was P.O. Art Crighton, Calgary, who didn't go and said sorrowfully:

"I wanted to be there and I'm darn mad about it."

He should have been aboard what's come to be known as the "Calgary Kite," the crew of which includes Sgt. Roy Norris and P.O. Dick Howard, both of Calgary. Others who made the flight in it were Sgt. Winston Churchill Parker, of Midnapore, Alta., and Sgt. Hubert Brooks and Sgt. James Paton, both of Montreal.

Other Canadian airmen who told of the flight included Flt. Lt. D. Wolfe, Regina; Flt. Sgt. Murray Swanson, Edmonton; Flt. Sgt. Edward Wilson, Edmonton, all pilots.

KNEW HER MAN

With a brisk, efficient air, the suburban resident picked up his gas-mask and donned his coat and hat.

"Well, bye-bye, dear!" he said to his wife. "I'm off to do my turn at fire-watching."

"Hm!" was the cold reply. "And who might the flame be this time?"

DAMAGED IN BATTLE

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, March 5 (AP).—The 18,713-ton British passenger ship Ceramic is in a Rio de Janeiro harbor shipyard for repairs after being damaged in a battle in which she may have sunk a submarine in the South Atlantic, it was learned today.

The steamer arrived Tuesday night after a forty-five-day voyage from Liverpool. She was bound for South Africa, but put in here after exchanging cannon shots with the submarine. Some of the 360 passengers thought the submarine was destroyed.

ROSS DECIDES TO FORSAKE TROPHY

BOSTON, March 5 (CP).—Art Ross, manager of Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League, has decided to postpone offering a trophy for the best all-around player in the league until after the war.

Ross announced his plans to put up such a trophy at the start of the season. The National Hockey League already has the Hart Trophy, which goes annually to the man who is considered by sports writers to be the most valuable player to his team.

"I believe it would be unwise to put up another trophy under present conditions," Ross said tonight.

EXPERIENCES WERE VARIED

Tin Mine Employee Reaches Vancouver Home From Siam Via Singapore

VANCOUVER, March 5 (CP).—One of the last Canadians to leave Singapore, Colin Dingwall, twenty-nine, is back in Vancouver today after undergoing bombing from Japanese planes in Thailand, Malay and Singapore, spending a term in a Siamese jail, where he was robbed by police, and watching frenzied mobs of natives run wild in the street of the Malayan tin town Ipoh when strafed and bombed by the Japanese.

"I was lucky," he said in an interview. "I got a complete fade out of it."

Dingwall was foreman at a tin mine in Thailand when the Japanese invaded the country.

"The Siamese fought for only ninety minutes when the Japanese invaded Thailand," he said. "It was just a token resistance. Big Japanese interests had bought their way into the country and Japanese officers had taken control of the army."

He escaped with other Britons through swamp and jungle to Bhuket on the coast, where he was thrown into jail and robbed of all his possessions.

At Bhuket the Britons were picked up by a British steamer and taken to Singapore and from there Dingwall went 300 miles into the interior by train to Ipoh, headquarters of his company. The train was constantly bombed, he said, and Ipoh under attack when he got there. The natives were an uncontrollable mob, he said.

He left Singapore on a Canadian ship.

AIRMEN INCORRECTLY CLASSIFIED IN LATE LIST OF CASUALTIES

OTTAWA, March 5 (CP).—Royal Canadian Air Force officials said today an error in official R.C.A.F. casualty list A1202, issued Tuesday, resulted in five names of personnel in Canada being incorrectly classified as overseas casualties. The five actually were casualties in Canada.

The five improperly classified were: L.A.C. Graham Butt, of Caplin Cove, Nfld., who was listed "reported dead," previously reported dangerously ill; L.A.C. Frank C. Holtan, of Westlock, Alta., and L.A.C. James MacMillan Hood, of Kansas City, Mo., seriously injured; AC2 Arthur C. Chadecott, of Vancouver, dangerously ill; and AW2 Mable Lorene Hall, of Provost, Alta., seriously ill.

Mr. McMaster said scores of deals are in the process of negotiation.

First in the Hearts of Canadians
SWEET CAPORAL CIGARETTES
"THE PUREST FORM IN WHICH TOBACCO CAN BE SMOKED"

INVOKES SPIRIT OF GRIM GAIETY

British Peoples' Unquenchable Sense of Humor Is Source of Inner Strength

"If, on the front line, people can [illegible] touch our so-easy gaiety with grimness. Let's go forward united in Canada, grimly and gaily," Frank Dowsett, of Toronto, told the Victoria Rotary Club in a luncheon address at the Empress Hotel yesterday.

The "miracle of Dunkerque" was a miracle of morale, just as the achievements of the Royal Air Force against superior odds have been, Mr. Dowsett said. Speaking upon "Grim Gaiety," he remarked that there was a wave of doubt sweeping through the minds of many Canadians and Americans, necessitating an examination of the spiritual and mental issues facing us today.

RECALLS CHURCHILL'S WORDS

"Churchill said after France fell, 'Let us face grimly and gaily the tasks that lie in front of us,'" the speaker reminded his audience. As an example of "grim gaiety," he cited the story of a Cockney soldier who, standing in the sea off Dunkerque up to his neck, shouted to the operator of a departing rescue craft, "Go easy with that putt-putt—you'll wet me blooming feet."

Occupied Europe furnishes many examples of the grimmest gaiety in history, Mr. Dowsett said. When a Quisling judge revoked a young Norwegian lawyer's licence to practise "for life," the lawyer remarked "whose life?" and died before a firing squad two weeks later.

When the Nazis put up in a Warsaw park a sign reading "Reserved for Germans Only," the Poles removed it six successive times, finally placing it in a cemetery.

TEACHINGS REMAIN

Teachings of the philosophers triumph over the ephemeral might of military dictators, since their doctrines live on, Mr. Dowsett remarked.

"It is not given to all of us to fight. Many civilians can't find the thing they would like to do. If we do our jobs efficiently and don't let the defeatists get us down, then we are doing our job," he said, just as was the Scottish pipe-major who, though twice wounded, sat on the sands of Tobruk and played his comrades on to capture three strong points held by the Germans. A. C. Lindsay, president of the club, thanked Mr. Dowsett.

HARVESTING TO BE CONSIDERED

Students for Berry Picking And Trainees for Fire Fighting Proposed

Surveys of farm labor to be required in British Columbia this year have been commenced by Dominion officials in co-operation with the Province, Hon. G. S. Pearson announced yesterday. Officials of the Dominion Employment Service conferred this week with Mr. Pearson and departmental officers, seeking an estimate of the amount of help that will be required with harvesting.

Consideration is still being given to the use of high school students in berry picking and other similar light occupations under a voluntary plan, if the details can be worked out. Proposals have been made that credits with school work could be given to such student who volunteered for work in the berry patches towards the end of the present school term. Final decision, however, had not been reached on the point.

STUDY FOREST PLAN

Meanwhile, in the Department of Lands, the Government had before them a proposal from the Dominion that work-trainees, among the class of young men called for training and declining military service, could be used during the four months' training period for fire fighting and other work in the forests of British Columbia.

These men, between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two, would be given free transportation by the Dominion to and from the Province, and would work out their called time in civil occupations. They would include Mennonities and other groups of whom service under arms is not directly required. Hon. A. W. Gray said yesterday the proposal was under consideration, but had not yet been reviewed by the whole Cabinet.

That Body of Yours
by JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

AVOIDING FAT FOODS TO PREVENT ACNE—PIMPLES

Because acne is so common in the teen age and as there are always teen age boys and girls, I continue to write about acne and about any methods of treating it.

I have spoken before of the viosterol treatment and treatment by extracts of the thyroid and pituitary glands, and also of treatment by X-rays. The viosterol treatment has been more generally successful and also seems to leave fewer scars than other methods.

I have also spoken before of the fat-free diet in treatment of psoriasis—white patches of silvery scales on the skin. That avoiding fats helps many cases of acne has been known for many years but not so much has been said or heard of it during the past fifteen or twenty years. However, at the Cleveland meeting of the American Medical Association, Dr. Richard L. Sutton, Kansas City, Mo., stated that acne is a manifestation of the body's failure to break up fats properly, just as diabetes shows the body's failure to handle starch foods. This failure can be corrected by reducing the amount of fat in the patient's diet with the addition in many, if not most, cases of carefully regulated doses of thyroid extract.

"The low fat diet should have enough water, minerals, proteins, calories and vitamins. Milk cream, butter, ice cream, pork foods, egg yolks, fried foods, gravies, nuts, chocolates and vegetable oils should be forbidden."

By avoiding or cutting down on fat foods only but continuing the use of all other foods, mental depression and tiredness begin to grow less within a week, and loss of weight of five to ten pounds should be seen within a month, especially in those who have formerly used much milk.

While X-ray treatment of skin ailments is used more than any other single method and, in the opinion of leading skin specialists, gives better results, nevertheless Dr. Sutton has this to say about X-rays in the treatment of acne: "The X-ray treatment of acne should not be attempted until after the treatment of a low fat diet has been given a thorough trial. The X-rays cannot remove fat deposits from the skin glands; they can merely destroy the glands and that will not prevent oiliness of skin unless fat foods are reduced."

DEMANDS FOR MORE ACTION

British Public Growing Increasingly Critical of Government and Leader

LONDON, March 5 (CP).—Beyond the vision of a public growing increasingly critical and more demanding, Prime Minister Churchill has stepped temporarily into the background to give full-time to the problems of the war.

In his place in the House of Commons stands the able and popular Sir Stafford Cripps to answer for what bitter critics waste no words in calling the war blunders of the past.

There is no doubt, however, that Mr. Churchill is still within hearing distance of the ever-mounting cry for action which has followed him behind the scenes, and now a caustic press and the demanding public are waiting to see what comes of it.

TREND OF CRITICISM

Indicative that the trend of criticism is veering toward Mr. Churchill personally is the point-blank question some quarters are asking: "Is he the man for 1942?"

Most critics, in printed and spoken word, concede the country owes a debt to the man who led them through some of the war's toughest periods, but that is when the attacks are so worded as to miss Mr. Churchill himself. Today there is a growing inclination to bulk the Prime Minister with his Government.

One of the men expected to prove a most dangerous and outspoken opponent is Leslie Hore-Belisha, former War Secretary. He has hammered continually at the Prime Minister's participation in discussion of military affairs.

To appease indignation of public and press alike there can be nothing less than the demanded tangible evidence of campaign plans or at least a revitalization of the working of the nation.

Every passing day finds diminishing the enthusiasm which greeted the realignment of the Government which, analysis shows, really injected a minimum of new blood.

CHANGES UNPOPULAR

Even changes among junior ministers, Mr. Churchill's latest answer to demands for invigoration, were described by The Times as "a nice balancing of party claims—customary in time of peace, but neither encouraging nor edifying in time of war . . ."

The feeling was expressed more vigorously by today's Evening News, which said: "Whitehall, where so many battles have been lost in this war, needs a drastic purge. There is still a rumbling lack of awareness and alertness throughout the whole cumbrous mass of Government services."

The Daily Mail declared: "We will not win this war until the men at the top give confidence to all at home and abroad that their direction of the war is forceful, efficient and up-to-date."

SOCIAL CREDIT

Sir,—In reply to a recent letter in your columns, may I state that there is not now, nor has there ever been, Social Credit in Alberta. The sovereign will of the people of Alberta, as expressed in two elections, has been overruled by the Supreme Court of Canada.

Repudiation, confiscation and debt legislation have nothing whatever to do with Social Credit, but for reasons which may appear obvious, it is to the interest of certain people to keep alive in the public mind that these things show what Social Credit is.

The philosophy of Social Credit is founded on the premise that the people have the physical means of providing amply for their wants and that they cannot benefit from association owing to the restrictions imposed by the private control of money and credit.

Once the control of currency and credit is restored to the people through their Government, the difficulties now attending the distribution of goods and services will be removed, and without any necessity for bureaucratic control or exploitation of labor.

The benefits to be derived from the use of our Social (National) Credit, particularly in relieving the tax burden and assisting the production of war equipment, will be discovered ere long. It is worth studying.

(MISS) W. E. HUGHES,
Secretary, New Democracy Movement.
224 Pemberton Building, Victoria, B.C., March 2, 1942.

FUTURE OF CIVILIZATION

Sir,—The war increases our bewilderment and agitation from day to day. What now exercises my attention is not whether we win or draw, but rather how the society which calls and believes itself Christian will react under the impact of war. What appears certain is, that the Orient is on the march, and the question which naturally arises, is an Oriental civilization to dominate our own?

I am rather considering the immediate and near future. Let us say one hundred years or so, which, after all, is a very short period in the history of time. Were we condemned to such a regime, it must be because our own constitution, Christendom, if you wish, has been singularly impaired. I do not mean by this that to acquaint ourselves with the culture and philosophy of Oriental life is detrimental. It is not, and a fuller understanding and awareness of Asiatic civilization is necessary for the future.

However, I think you'll agree, Sir, that Christianity promises us something finer and fuller, providing we adhere not to appearances only, but to the practices of Christian life also.

How then are we to move out of mediocrity and reach up, and out, to the culminating point, that is, the love of Christ—truly the "sword of the spirit"—which no civilization can subdue. Many think of improving Christendom; but those who are wise believe that our eyes are blurred by being fastened on the vagueness of books, versatile maybe, but lacking in doctrine and validity. And the wise are not far short of the truth, surely, since the beginning of wisdom is the fear of the Lord. This appears so, in my humble opinion, and to the best of my limited ability. I fail to see the result of our presuming to improve the Christian constitution, but rather the improvement must be made from within. Ephesians v intimates that man in himself is always darkness; he is only light in the Lord.

Moreover, where indeed has our presuming led us!

From the region of ideas and principles we have come down to earth in our emotions. Unconsciously, perhaps, we have forged our false philosophies, and, at times, the wicked assumption that we are the Lord's anointed. Naturalism, pantheism, charlatanism have been wrought out of our benumbed conceiving. Oh, yes! there is some good in most things, most reasoning. The secret, however, is in the supernatural religion of Christ, and His Church. "Martha, Martha, thou art careful, and art troubled about many things."

Yet Jesus loved her and loved her devotion, but, like ourselves, she had too many irons in the fire.

FOR THE SOLARIUM

Sir,—The members of the Solarium W.A. would like to take this opportunity of thanking those friends who made donations to the recent linen shower for the Solarium. The results were exceedingly disappointing, due no doubt to the particular demands of the present time. Realizing this, we are the more grateful to those who were kind enough to make gifts of linen or cash. They evidently feel, as we do, that the work of the Solarium must go on at all cost and we are sincerely grateful for their help.

WHERE

Not being fit for military service a little man tried for a job as a striker in a blacksmith's shop.

After looking him over the smith picked up the biggest hammer and threw it out of the window, saying: "If you can do this you can start work."

The little man picked up the anvil and threw it after the hammer, saying: "O.K., guv'nor, are we working outside?"

Secret of a Good Party

By LETTICE LEE STREETT

The secret of a good party in honor of the very young is to give them an outline of what's-to-do, follow through promptly and then keep them at it busily. Supposedly, the tempo of any festive occasion is keyed to the sparkle in the hostess' eye. Heaven knows there is no necessity to quicken the pace of a children's party, rather, the trick is to successfully abate and control the delirium of joy and excitement. If not, all is lost including order, a good time, most of the bric-a-brac in the house, the mother's nerves and the children's tempers.

But the look in the mother's eye, while pleasantly saying, "I'm glad to see you and we are all going to have fun," can at the same time be calmly determined enough to make the children understand that no rude and violent behavior will be allowed.

When the small guests arrive, some solemnly shy, some giggling their greetings, but all obviously in the throes of delight over the prospect of a party, it is a clever and far-sighted mother who announces agreeably to each newcomer: "First everyone is going to take their coats upstairs and then we shall play Farmer in the Dell (or any game you choose) until everybody is here."

KEEP GUEST OCCUPIED

Even ten minutes of waiting is [illegible] young party-goers can endure, so keep them occupied!

This sort of manoeuvring and instruction need not be bossy-toned, nor is it to be likened to the mother's customary management of her own child or brood in the comparative order and peace of her everyday household routine. Reason tells us that to plan, describe, order and dictate every move a child makes will soon render him lazy and incapable of developing initiative and independence.

But a party is a different situation; here you have a group of shinglingly scrubbed lads and lassies done up within an inch of their short lives in best suits and fluffy frocks, ready to frolic and rarin' to go. They also feel a sense of abandon if they are out of eye and earshot of mummies or nurses. Someone has to take charge, has to devise an orderly schedule that is also fun, if disaster and tears are to be avoided.

Not only are children likely to have a better time at a party that is neatly planned, but to a certain degree they need similar treatment in their daily lives. A youngster is happiest when he feels secure in the [illegible] and guidance of reliable parents.

A RELIABLE MOTHER

A reliable mother is one who does what she says she will do—there are no hazy "ifs and buts" about her, no uncertainties as to whether she will keep a promise of about maybe she won't be mad just this time if I don't come home at five-thirty. She is honest and consistent and her child feels that she, and thus his world, is secure. To a certain extent, in the management of her child a mother follows the secret of a successful party, she keeps his interest alive and stimulated, she keeps him busy, and she is just as keen about this need for a happy childhood as she is in seeing to it that he is properly nourished, kept clean and tucked into his snowy cot to slumber at an early bedtime.

NO. 72—EIGHTY-FOURTH YEAR VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, FRIDAY, MARCH 6, 1942

Glancing Over Sport

By JOE CRAMPTON

WILL IT END TONIGHT?

That's the important question which is hosting around the hockey battlefront today as the Bajors prepare to invade Nanaimo to battle it out with the Clippers in the fourth game of the Coast Hockey League series tonight. After speaking to some of the local players after Wednesday's victory over Bill Prentice's squad, the boys seem confident that they will square up the series this evening and then go on to win the championship and the right to meet Vernon in the British Columbia final. Big Sid Gouveia's statement was that the Bajors will take the decision tonight as they proved winning hockey all during the last game while Wally McIntyre, leading defenceman for Victoria, feels that the boys are ready to play they played a vastly different game on Wednesday, to come out a 5-1 victory. Manager Dean Lomax also concludes that the Bajors will come through and take a 3-0 lead and final match here on Saturday night at the Winnews. Speaking around the local dressing room to do with the Bajors will for the last game. At least that's the opinion of most of the fans. Allan Hall spoken to . . . Victoria better not enter tonight's battle too confident for the Clippers are a tough team to beat on their home ice especially in a series as important as this one . . . One added factor is the fact that the other night that he scored a hat of peanuts onto the ice during the final period. The puck ordered him from the rink but he didn't seem to mind, for Victoria was within the picture at the time. I other think that the Clippers will take the honors this evening by two goals so don't say I didn't tell you so.

COLONIST VS TIMES

"After glancing over the material I have on hand I don't think for one moment that we will have much trouble trimming the aforesaid newspaper lassies in that hockey match at the Willows on Sunday afternoon," stated Sid Tassonis 200-pound manager of The Colonist team yesterday. However the boss of The Times pickmen Pete Sandiway, is of the same opinion and goes on to say. We will pin the ears back of those beautiful Colonist hockey players and when the final whistle sounds they'll wish they had never challenged us. Skipper Red Lawson announced yesterday that the probable line up of the mighty newspaper crew would be Bill Richardson goal, Herb Dickson, Red Lawson, Jim McCrodie and yours truly defence, Ron Turner, Frank Elliott, Frank Bailey, Bill Templeton, Bill Stevens, Fred Lupton, Chris Miller, G. Thom, and G. McPhee. According to reports from down at the rival office The Times will have the following roster to face the dauntless out of us. George Gunnes and Wilson Yeamans, Ron Knott, Jack Donaldson, and 'Red' Wells defence, B. Wagner, H. Bleasdale, R. Jenkins, S. Hopkins, C. Dickson, A. Stewart, Byron J. Kearns, and Wally Grist. All I can say is if that's the best they can muster the better part of about four of the Bajors. If they figure on winning it's a mistake.

ODDS AND ENDS

"Oh, we're in all that separates us. Wonder what that?" he was asked. "I haven't. Business Manager Ed Barrow sent me a letter and he said 'No'." . . . The Bantams will be well supported at Nanaimo tonight as a big contingent of spectators will be heading for the Upisland city as soon as work finishes. . . . Saturday Night—Boston at Canadiens, Rangers at Toronto

TORONTO, March 6 (CP)—Montreal Canadiens, with their fifth straight win, kept alive their chances of getting into the play-offs by trimming Toronto Maple Leafs 5-2 in an overtime contest at the Forum last night. The victory, which was the fifth successive one for the Montreal sextet, put the Canadiens into a tie with Boston Bruins for second place in the National Hockey League.

Paul Bibeault, Montreal goalie who was operated on for appendicitis last week, was back in the nets and turned in a brilliant performance, especially in the overtime period, when he made several sensational saves to keep the Leafs from scoring.

Bibeault, who has been out of action since January 31, was given a great deal of support by his defence partners, Emile Bouchard and Ken Reardon, who checked the Leafs closely throughout the game.

Toronto had the edge in the play during the first period, but failed to score. Montreal, however, opened the scoring in the second period when Toe Blake, who had been moved to the left wing position, beat Turk Broda with a low shot from the side of the net.

Toronto tied the score a minute later on a shot by Johnny Mariucci, assisted by Bill Thoms. Mel Hill, Americans' right winger was serving a penalty while both goals were scored.

Syd Howe, Lasalle native, scored the winning goal five minutes from the end on a drive assisted by Egan.

NEW YORK, March 6 (CP)—The Boston Americans, who recently kept their goal-tending department busy with a 24-1 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks in a National Hockey League game before 7,431 fans, . . . The victory was one of the most decisive the Bostonians have scored over the Windy City sextet this season, and was the first time they had scored more than four goals against the Hawks.

Mel Hill, Boston left winger, was the star of the game, scoring a hat trick. Hill's first goal was scored at 2:41 of the first period, and his last at 14:41 of the third period. Other Boston goals were scored by Bill Cowley, Roy Conacher, Jack Crawford, Herb Cain, Bob Carse and Bob Dill.

WINGS TRIM RANGERS

Detroit, March 6 (AP)—Detroit's Red Wings finally ended the jinx of the New York Rangers tonight by walloping the final series game, a 5-2 win, before 7,311 fans. It was the first time this season that the Red Wings had beaten the National Hockey League leaders.

Tempers which began to flare Sunday, after the same opponents broke out a fistfight before the end of the second period, when Paul Watson, of the Rangers, and Jerry Heal, of the Red Wings, sparred off in front of the New York bench.

It soon was a free-for-all with even a spectator getting in the melee at times, officials on the ice along with players and equipment, and eight players in all. Both Heal and Watson, the ringleaders, were dealt major penalties and Sid Abel of Detroit and Bryan Hextall of New York were fined $25 by Referee King Clancy for coming onto the ice.

Clancy, after each protester in that period, ordered them to go into a 5-1 tie.

Detroit never was headed. Lasconi scored first and after the New Yorkers equalized, Goaltender Mike Karakas, on a pass by Grant Warwick, the Red Wings were ahead to stay on Eddie Wares' counter.

Warwick also marked the lucky number, and the same game in which the Rangers had won their first victory over the Red Wings, Jan. 1, 1940. The Red Wings got their next goal on Jack Stewart's counter and the Rangers got the last counter.

Rookie Hub Mayer of the Rangers got the last counter.

Line-Ups

New York—Henry Coulter, Pratt Wallon, Patrick, Hextall, Subs, Hollet, Rookey, M. Colville, N. Colville, Warwick, Smith, Macey, Juzda, Kurtz.

Captures Canadian Curling Championship by Scoring Easy Triumph

QUEBEC March 5 (CP) The Canadian curling championship went to Manitoba tonight for the tenth time in sixteen years of Macdonald's Brier tankard play when J. Ken Watson's Winnipeg rink scored an easy victory over Prince Edward Island in the ninth and final round. The victory left Watson with eight victories and only one defeat.

Watson a winner of the title six years ago defeated a rink skipped by W. R. Crinkbank of Charlottetown, 14-3, in succeeding to the championship won last year by Howard Palmer, of Alberta. Two brothers Gordon and Donald Campbell were runners up in the 1942 event as Ontario and British Columbia their respective links finished with seven victories against two defeats.

In the final round Donald Campbell's Vancouver rink won 14-7 over the Alberta four skipped by John Slavik of Viking while his brother's Hamilton Thistle aggregation triumphed 12-4 over a Quebec rink skipped by J. A. Ross Jr., of Huntingdon that failed to win a game in the four day tourney.

The other ninth round games saw New Brunswick's Dan Connolly, of Bathurst, win 14-5 over the Nova Scotia four from Bridgewater skipped by John I. Hebb while the Rosetown rink representing Saskatchewan and skipped by John Frankin defeated Northern Ontario's Bill McMitchell of Sudbury, 10-5.

Holds Lead at Halfway Mark In $5,000 Open—Hogan Is Disqualified

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 5 (AP) Samuel Jackson Snead, the grand slammer of golf, ignored the elements today to fire a three-under par 69 and take the lead at the halfway point in the seventy-two-hole $5,000 St. Petersburg Open, from which Ben Hogan and two others were disqualified at the height of a rainstorm.

A hard rain enveloped the Lakewood Country Club in the midst of the second eighteen-hole round and threw everybody into confusion except the long-driving star from Hot Springs, Va., who is the Canadian Open champion. He breezed home with a smile to overtake Byron Nelson and others who had set the pace yesterday.

Hogan, twice winner of the Vardon Trophy and currently the leading money winner of golf, was playing with Henry Picard of Oklahoma City, former PGA champion, and Tom Moran of Beverly, Mass., when the rain began, and they made the turn at the clubhouse and played the tenth hole.

Then Hogat suggested they return to the clubhouse and complain that the course was unplayable. Fred Corcoran, tournament manager for the Professional Golfers' Association, inspected several holes and found other contestants were continuing play and instructed the trio to return.

The threesome did set out again, but not until they had consumed some coffee and waited out part of the storm. Instead, Corcoran insisted that they were disqualified for the remainder of the day.

Nelson, who had blazed a 68 yesterday, was almost finished before the rain struck and had nothing to blame but himself for a 76 today and a 144 total.

USED HOUSES

MANY OF THESE HOUSES WERE BUILT FOR AN OWNER, not for speculation, and by workmen who were not rushed and had genuine pride in their work. The TAXES on them are much lower than on new houses with the same accommodation. AT THE PRESENT TIME it is possible to secure new kitchen sinks, modern bath tubs and hardwood floor ing flooring. SIX MONTHS from now the story is likely to be different. After modernization the TOTAL COST will be much lower than that of a new house. Various materials for new construction are getting scarce and owners of new houses are unwilling to part with them, hence those wishing to purchase a home would be wise to consider one of the older houses. LET US KNOW YOUR REQUIREMENTS. We may be able to match them up with something on our books.

KIMBERLEY WILL TAKE ON RIVALS

EDMONTON, March 5 (CP)—Dr. W. G. Hardy, Edmonton, past president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, announced today that Kimberley Dynamiters and Trail Smoke Eaters, which previously had refused to take part in the A.B.C. Senior Hockey League play-offs, have accepted a play-off proposal made by the C.A.H.A. with the co-operation of Calgary Stampeders and Lethbridge Maple Leafs, the other play-off contenders.

The proposal calls for five-game semi-final series between the clubs with all games being played in Alberta. Trail will meet Calgary next Saturday night in Calgary in the first game of their series—between the first and fourth place teams—and Lethbridge and Kimberley are expected to begin their series tomorrow night, at Lethbridge.

Dr. Hardy said Fred Cameron, of Turner Valley, A.B.C. League president, will be in charge of the play-off schedule, naming the referees and other details.

The managers of British Columbia teams announced Sunday night after the conclusion of the regular schedule Saturday, that owing to

Leading Stocks Reach New Low On Wall Street

NEW YORK, March 5 (AP).—Many leading stocks today dropped to a new low for the past year or longer as market sentiment apparently was further depressed by war news and tax apprehension.

The list edged downward at the start. Most rails, steels, utilities and aircraft held declines to fractions but a number of weak spots developed after mid-day and several closing declines ranged from 2 to 7 points.

The Associated Press average of sixty stocks was off .7 of a point at 36.1. It was the biggest recession since Dec. 9 last, and put this composite at its bottom mark since December 29. Dealings were slow the greater part of the time although activity picked up at the last. Transfers totaled 449,690 shares against 375,670 yesterday, and were the largest since February 10.

U.S. Rubber, preferred dived 7 points on the deferment of the dividend on this issue. Climax Molybdenum was off 4 7-8 as a New York court ordered a profits accounting by this concern and certain officers of the American Metal Co. The latter company's shares were down 2.

Other prominent retreaters included Liggett & Myers "B", Du Pont, Eastman Kodak, Johns-Manville, International Harvester, U.S. Rubber common, Chrysler, American Telephone, Santa Fe, Union Pacific and American Airlines.

Consolidated Aircraft reported a brisk expansion in net profits and the stock finished up 1-8.

Rails were relatively resistant as today's summary of last week's freight loadings disclosed a contra-seasonal increase. Other fairly good business items were more or less ignored.

It was one of the broader markets of 1942 to date, 724 individual stocks being traded. Of these, 463 were down, 85 up and 176 unchanged.

DOW JONES' AVERAGES

Dow Jones' averages closed today as follows:

Thirty industrials, 104.55, off 1.44.
Twenty rails, 36.79, off 0.50.
Twenty utilities, 12.74, off 0.06.
Total sales, 450,000 shares.

Little Stories for Bedtime

Bowser the Hound Meets His Match

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

Peter Rabbit and Digger the Badger had become the best of friends. Every morning Peter stopped at Digger's new home to tell him the news of the Green Meadows, for Digger was so busy that he had little time to go about. Then Peter, who is a great gossip, would go about among his neighbors and tell them what a fine fellow Digger the Badger is.

Now on the Green Meadows and in the Green Forest no one is feared like Bowser the Hound. When his voice comes booming on the air all the little meadow and forest people, excepting those who fly, shiver and hide, all but Prickly Porky the Porcupine, who knows his thousand little spears will protect him, and Unc' Billy Possum, who one time fooled Bowser and is sure that he can do it again. So when Peter Rabbit boasted about Digger the Badger and what a big strong fellow he is, Peter's neighbors shook their heads and said, "Wait until he meets Bowser the Hound. Just wait. Then we will see."

Of course Peter told Digger all about Bowser the Hound and what a terrible fellow he is. Digger just laughed.

"I'm not afraid," said he.

"But you don't know him. You don't know what a great, big, fierce fellow he is," protested Peter. "You just better watch out!"

Then one day when jolly, round, red Mr. Sun was smiling his broadest, Bowser the Hound took it into his head to go down the Lone Little Path into the Green Meadows, and there he surprised Digger the Badger out for a walk. Bowser stopped and pricked up his ears. He had never before seen such a queer fellow, and he didn't know just what to make out of him, for Digger just stood and grinned at him until he showed all his teeth.

"Bow, wow, wow!" shouted Bowser in his deepest voice that carried terror to all the little forest and meadow people.

Still Digger the Badger just grinned. The hair stood up on Bowser's neck and back until he looked very fierce and savage.

"You had better be afraid of me," growled Bowser in a deep voice.

"You Had Better Be Afraid of Me," Growled Bowser in a Deep Voice.

"But I'm not," said Digger the Badger, "not the least little bit."

"Then I'll make you afraid," snarled Bowser, springing on Digger the Badger.

Then followed such a fight as the Green Meadows had never seen. The Merry Little Breezes spread the news of it, and soon all the little meadow and forest people were gathered about in a great circle.

Over and over in the meadow grass rolled Bowser the Hound and Digger the Badger, snarling and growling and biting and clawing. Soon Bowser's smooth, glossy coat was torn and Digger's grey coat was in tatters.

Reddy Fox watched from a safe distance and grinned. "Now," thought Reddy, "this will be the end of Digger the Badger, and I'm glad of it."

But it wasn't the end of Digger. Oh, my, no! The first thing they all knew Bowser the Hound was actually running away. Yes, sir, with his tail between his legs Bowser the Hound was hurrying up the Lone Little Path, whimpering, with the tears rolling down his cheeks. The little meadow and forest people looked at each other. They could hardly believe their eyes. Then they gave a great shout and all hurried up to shake hands with Digger the Badger and tell him what a wonderful fellow he was—all but Reddy Fox, who ground his teeth and sneaked off in disappointment.

RECTAL SORENESS AND PILE TORTURE QUICKLY RELIEVED

If you are troubled with itching piles or rectal soreness do not delay treatment and run the risk of letting this condition become chronic. Any itching or soreness or painful passage of stool is nature's warning and proper treatment should be secured at once.

For this purpose get a package of Hem-Rold from Modern Pharmacy or Cunningham Drug Stores, or any druggist, and use as directed. This formula, which is used internally, is a small, easy to take tablet, will quickly relieve the itching and soreness and aid in healing the sore, tender spots. Hem-Rold is pleasant to use, is highly recommended, and it seems the height of folly for anyone to [illegible] a painful and chronic pile condition when such a fine remedy may be had at such a small cost.

If you try Hem-Rold and are not entirely pleased with the results your druggist will gladly return your money. (Adv.)

Sign Convention For Income Tax

WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP)—The United States and Canada have signed an income tax convention designed to eliminate double taxation of individual incomes and to regulate the taxation of dividends paid by corporations in one country to stockholders in the other.

Under the convention, which becomes effective as of January 1, 1941, as soon as ratifications have been exchanged, Canadians living in the United States must pay both the American and Canadian income tax, but may deduct from their Canadian tax the amount paid to the United States.

PLYMOUTH, England (CP).—More than 100 pubs here have been closed through enemy action, but there's still enough, 327, doing business to keep thirsty residents satisfied.

DWELLINGS ARE NEARLY READY

Thirty-Five Shipwrights to Move Into Esquimalt Homes on Monday

By Monday, morning next, thirty-five shipyard workers and their families, numbering approximately 140 persons, are expected to move into homes provided for them on Colville Road, Esquimalt, by Wartime Housing, Limited, which is erecting seventy-five dwellings to house defence workers.

The houses contain four or six rooms, and are being built in two and four-bedroom sizes. They are being pushed to completion as rapidly as possible, and already nearly 100 workers have applied for occupancy, and further applications are still being received by the Esquimalt office of Wartime Housing, Limited.

GOOD-SIZED LOTS

The lots upon which the homes are erected average 60 by 120 feet in area, allowing tenants considerable garden space. To encourage them to improve the appearance of the housing project, the Dominion Government proposes to award householders prizes for the best-kept gardens.

When weather permits, a macadamized road will be built to replace the temporary thoroughfare now serving the project, and the wooden planks forming it will be taken apart later and used for the construction of sidewalks.

NO MORE TENANTS YET

As building advances, more tenants will be moved in, but for the present Wartime Housing, Limited, is unable to find accommodation for more than the thirty-five families who will take possession of their new quarters on Monday.

The dwellings have no basements, but are individually heated, insulated against the weather and furnished with modern plumbing fixtures. Additional units will be built, if and when the need arises, to house the expanding personnel of the shipyards in the municipality.

Housing at Esquimalt Nearly Completed

A general view of the dwellings being erected on Colville Road, Esquimalt, to house shipwrights and their families, is shown above. Thirty-five shipyard workers are expected to move into their new homes Monday, and as further houses are made ready for occupancy other tenants will follow them into residence. A macadamized road will be built later to serve the area. The homes are being built by Wartime Housing, Ltd., a corporation created to provide accommodation for the workers of Canada's expanding defence industries.

LOGGING OPERATORS CLOSING CAMPS TO ALL BUT EMPLOYEES

VANCOUVER, March 5 (CP).—A statement issued here today by logging companies operating camps on the Queen Charlotte Islands, which have been closed for the duration of the war to all except employees and officials of the company said "intend to leave nothing undone to prevent sabotage or any threat ference with the carrying on of our operations."

Officials of the International Woodworkers of America earlier in the week protested closing of the camps in a statement which said that the move meant "that representatives of the men cannot enter the camp to conduct legal union business."

The statement by the companies today said "the spruce we are producing on Queen Charlotte Islands we would be remiss in our duty in these times, when the danger of war on our coasts is apparent to everyone, if we permitted indiscriminate entrance to our operations."

HALIFAX, March 5 (CP).—City Council last night approved a measure compelling citizens to provide themselves with sand and other materials to combat fires which might result from air raids and

If you will confine your retrospection to happy thoughts, you will find yourself helping to make other people cheerful. Undertake to do nothing that you have not the inclination or time to do well, or you will find you have only thrown yourself open to criticism. March 6 will be a good day on which to remember the wise sayings: "A stitch in time saves nine," and "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure"; then apply these two sayings to the regulation of your affairs. Laughter will be the open sesame to good fellowship and it will be a welcomed sound in all households, so try to contribute your share of it to lighten everyone's burdens, especially if your are married, engaged or in love.

If you are a woman and March 6 is your birthday, remember that all work and no play will tend to dull your keenness and zest for life. Learn to relax if you wish to be thoroughly efficient. This may be a period in which advanced planning will prove to be advantageous, particularly if you are considering participation in social activities. Love will exert a mighty influence in personal affairs on this date so it might be well for you to demonstrate that you have an abundance of it. As an artist, writer, actress, teacher, sales agent, designer, interior decorator, florist, typist, trained nurse, or in some patriotic endeavor, your results are apt to be most gratifying. Your martial prospects appear to be all that you could wish them to be.

The child born on March 6 usually develops remarkable poise. His personal bearing frequently is responsible for his rapid advancement, both in school and in whatever activity in which he engages when he arrives at maturity.

If you are a man and March 6 is your natal day, this is a period when you should give considerable thought to your spiritual welfare, as well as to your material aims in life for without a high degree of faith the average person's morale may be affected seriously. As a military man, engineer, inventor, politician, lawyer, doctor, clergyman, architect, contractor, theatrical man, singer, author, lecturer, business operator, educator, newspaperman, publisher or scientist, you may find yourself in a position to command unlimited credit and the world's respect.

EXACTLY

For more than an hour the mild-mannered little man in the witness box had squirmed helplessly under the cold, hostile questioning of the opposing counsel.

"You say," prompted the attorney, "that you have crossed the Atlantic seven times."

"Yes, sir," replied the witness.

"And where were you born?"

"Here in New York."

"Then, sir," thundered the lawyer, "if you were born in New York and have crossed the Atlantic seven times, how does it happen that you aren't on the other side at this moment? Answer me that!"

"Because, sir," replied the witness very quietly, "on my last trip I came home by way of Siberia and the Pacific Ocean."

Remember Without Wanting

CHAPTER XLI

And when Harriet was driving into town in the small, old car she said, "Larry is so good, Judith. He was tired tonight. When I get away from him and the house and the children, I realize how lucky I am. Sometimes you have to get away from the things and people to appreciate them."

"In New York Stephen was telling me about the conditions in his and Larry's office."

"Pretty bad conditions, aren't they—for Steve? There's such a thing as being too smart for your job. It's Forbes or Steve and I think Steve will go. The whole thing is, of course, that Forbes is afraid of his job. I don't know what Steve will do. Go back to Baltimore probably. I'll miss him. Because I'm interested in him only as a friend, he's a comfortable person to have about, but a lot of girls here are excited about him. He's such good husband material running around loose and so good-looking."

"He's a nice boy."

"He's more than just a nice boy. He's honest and fair. He could, if he wanted to press the issue, have Forbes ousted. But where could Forbes find another seven thousand-a-year-job? He couldn't, and Steve knows that. He knows Mrs. Forbes and the two girls, too."

"If Stephen goes, then Larry will be made Forbes' assistant, won't he?"

"If they don't bring in another man from outside. But I think Larry will get it this time. Forbes will want him because he isn't afraid of him. But it does seem a pity that Steve has to go so that Larry can step in. Probably Steve has thought of that. He knows what an increase and a promotion would mean to Larry and me."

Three hours later Harriet drove away from the Barth home and Judith went in. Her mother was working on needlepoint and her father was talking to her. After so many years of marriage, they could still find something to talk and laugh about.

Isobel Barth looked up and smiled.

Judith looked at her father when she said, "Do you think the new advertising manager at Overton's would give me a job?"

He grinned. "I'm sure he would. Shall I speak to him about it?"

"No. I'll see him."

Her mother looked puzzled. "Why, Judith, I don't understand. Have you two something between you?"

Nicholas said, "Judith is coming home, dear."

"To live? To stay, you mean?"

Judith said, "Yes, I'm going to New York tomorrow and get my affairs there straightened out and then come back."

Tears filled Isobel's eyes. "But I won't have you throw away your chances, Judith. I won't have you do it for us. I'd rather go on getting little peeks at you occasionally the way it has been than for you to give up something important to you."

"It isn't important anymore. I'm doing it because I want to."

"And your things in New York, furniture?"

"I'll store it."

"You'll do nothing of the sort. The attic here is large and empty. Plenty of room for it. You'll want it again . . . But, dear, I simply won't be happy about this until you tell me you are doing this of your own accord and not for us. I thought you loved it there."

"I did. But this is of my accord." Her throat felt full. "You see, I found I needed you both again. I'm going up now. Good-night."

She left the room quickly because she was afraid she was going to cry. And so she did not know that Isobel looked earnestly at her husband and asked, "Is something wrong, do you suppose, Nicholas? Why is she doing this? Is it a man?" He said, "Will it matter if we never know? It couldn't be anything else but a man—at her age? Don't pry. Don't ask her any questions."

Judith arrived in New York the following afternoon and went immediately to the store to see Giles Henson.

"You?" he asked, looking up over his cluttered desk. "Where's the sunburn? How was South America?"

South America? She almost winced.

"I didn't go. I changed my mind and went home. And I've come back only to give up my apartment here and—and my job. It's a sudden decision, but the right one for me, I think. If you want me to stay while you get someone to take my place, I'll stay, of course."

"This is a good bit of a shock, Judith. I—I don't quite know what to say except I hate like the deuce to give you up. You're one of my best people. But you know your business better than I do. About staying on for a while, I wish you would for a few days. You're not getting married, are you?"

"No. I'm going to get a job at home."

"You have a lot of talent and a lot of sense that balances it. I'll give you a swell reference."

(To Be Continued)

HOW IT STARTED

DAVY JONES' LOCKER

Seaman's slang for the ocean as the final resting place of those drowned or buried at sea, the quest for the precise origin of Davy Jones' locker is still, so far as etymologists are concerned, unsatisfied.

Conjectures there are, and "conjectures" is the proper charactertization of the questionable derivations proffered as to how this colloquialism started.

An explanation that is neither more nor less dubious than others is that Davy Jones is a combination of Duffy, the ghost of a West Indian negro of that name, who figured in many hair-raising legends of the sea, and Jonah, the Hebrew prophet, whose adventure tale with and within a whale constitutes one of the greatest salt water stories of them all.

Corrupting the two names into the compound Davy Jones perhaps would not be an unnatural sailorman's conception of the evil spirit of the sea or the ocean's controlling genius.

BE CALM

A.R.P. first-aid post. The staff were so keen that the thought of ghosts didn't worry them.

On the first night the nurse on duty heard strange noises in the corridor. Opening the door, she saw a spectral figure with its head tucked underneath its arm.

"Dear, dear!" she exclaimed brightly. "How ever did that happen? Come inside and we'll see what we can do."
